

One Dead, Another Badly Hurt In Auto Mishap at West Park

David Sullivan of New York City Dead, William Bayerle of New York City Seriously Injured When Struck By Car During Snow Storm Last Night at West Park—Herbert Barringer, Car Driver, Booked on Manslaughter Charge.

David Sullivan, 21, of New York City, a student at the New York Protestant City Mission Society school located on the former Col. O. B. Payne estate at West Park, died fifteen minutes after being admitted to the Kingston Hospital last night following an automobile accident in which another student, William Bayerle, 19, of New York was seriously injured.

Herbert Barringer, 24, of Kerhonkson, driver of the Ford roadster, which struck the boys, was booked at the sheriff's office on a charge of manslaughter and will be arraigned later today.

According to information secured by Sergeant Lockhart, Troopers Lynn Baker and Lawson and Deputy Sheriff Clayton Vredenburg, who investigated the accident, four of the students had been to the home of the Rev. Mr. Dunseath, just south of the mission, to make arrangements for the holding of a basketball game at the West Park community house later this week. They had just left the residence of the Rev. Mr. Dunseath when the accident happened. Edward Bell and James Lefebvre preceded the other two students and crossed to the west side of the highway. Sullivan and Bayerle followed a short distance behind on the east of the road. The four students were walking north along the highway when the Ford driven by Barringer came along in a southerly direction.

The car struck the two men who were on the east of the road. Barringer said that at the time it was moving back and he had not been able to see. He failed to observe the men until his car struck something and he immediately stopped and went back and picked up William Bayerle and rushed him to the hospital. Sullivan was picked up and placed in the car of the Rev. Mr. Dunseath and brought to the hospital. The accident happened about 11 o'clock and the injured men were admitted to the hospital at 11:30. David Sullivan died about 15 minutes after being admitted.

Both injured men were treated by Drs. Krom, Meyers and Dr. Mellish, interns at the hospital.

With Barringer was his sister, Bertha Bell, of 62 Montgomery street, Poughkeepsie, and Peter Davis of the Biltmore Hotel, Poughkeepsie. Mr. Barringer was taking his sister and Mr. Davis back to Poughkeepsie after a visit at the Barringer home at Kerhonkson. Due to the severe storm the passengers of the car state they were unable to see the pedestrians on the road.

Mr. Miller in charge of the mission was notified of the accident and left a sick bed to come to Kingston to the court house where statements were taken by Trooper Baker.

Bayerle's condition today was reported as serious at the hospital where it was said he suffered severe lacerations about the face and possible fracture of the skull.

Coroner W. N. Conner was notified of Sullivan's death and went to the hospital where he made an investigation and then notified District Attorney Cleon B. Murray. Murray ordered an autopsy performed and this was done at the hospital by Drs. Meyers, Krom and Mellish. The body was taken in charge of Mr. Conner and moved to the Conner Home pending instructions from the family of the young man.

All of the parties involved were questioned as to the affair and the occupants of the car were brought to the court house where statements were secured. Sergeant Hopkins and Trooper Lawson who were returning from a call assisted in the examination of witnesses.

The Ford car was towed to the "Doc" Smith garage in this city.

ROOSEVELT'S SON OPPOSES CHILD LABOR AMENDMENT

Boston, Feb. 20 (AP)—James Roosevelt, son of the President, doesn't always agree with his father.

Father and son can't seem to get together on the question of ratification of the proposed Federal Child Labor Amendment.

President Roosevelt has asked the states to ratify the proposed amendment. His son "takes the stump" to oppose ratification by Massachusetts.

James Roosevelt voiced his opposition Sunday at a union meeting of the young people of five New York churches. He said he was opposed to ratification of the proposed amendment here but did not elaborate on his views.

And it appeared that the son might get his wish, for yesterday the House of Representatives of the Massachusetts legislature accepted three adverse committee reports on as many bills seeking ratification of the proposed amendment.

Washington, Feb. 20 (AP)—Speaker Rainey was authorized today by the President to say that the Chief Executive would not approve cash payment of the bonus at this time.

Greene Met Instant Death on Monday at West Park Crossing

Fred Greene of West Park Struck by West Shore Train and Instantly Killed—His Brother Suffered Similar Fate Nine Years Ago.

Fred Greene, 38, of West Park, met instant death shortly before 4 o'clock Monday afternoon, when the Ford truck he was driving was struck at the West Park crossing by West Park passenger train No. 25, going north and due at that point at 3:58. Greene's brother met a similar death at the same place about nine years ago.

Greene was hauling coal from a loaded car on the switch at West Park to the West Park orphanage and was after another load when the accident occurred. Frank and George Valli of West Park, who witnessed the accident, told Trooper Lion Baker, who made an investigation, that they arrived at the crossing about the same time as did Greene, but waited for the train to pass by.

The train, which is not scheduled to stop at West Park, made a complete wreck of the truck, which was scattered for some distance along the track. Following the impact Greene's body was caught on the front of the engine, just above the cowcatcher and was still there when the train was brought to a stop. Greene was dead when the train crew came up to render assistance.

Patrick J. Hallinan, 211 O'Neil street, Kingston, was the conductor and E. Phillips of Weehawken, the engineer of the train, which is due in Kingston at 4:12, but was held up by the accident until nearly 5 o'clock.

Coroner Lester D. DuBois of New Paltz was called and Monday night an autopsy was held at the undertaker's parlors of Clifton B. Carpenter of Highland, Dr. J. W. Blakeley of Highland and Dr. William S. Branner of New Paltz performing the autopsy.

Greene, who was employed as a chauffeur at the Sacred Heart orphanage, is survived by his wife, who was formerly Miss Eleanor Massey; his mother, Mrs. Carrie Greene, of West Park; three brothers, Murray and Raymond Greene of West Park, and Elmer Greene of Plainfield, Conn.; two sisters, Mrs. Stella Travis of West Park, and Mrs. W. C. Clark of Port Ewen, and several nieces and nephews. Funeral services from the late home in West Park on Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock and thence to the West Park Episcopal Church, where at 2 o'clock services will be held. Interment in the Highland Cemetery.

Army Daily Mileage For Mail Transport Reduced To 42,570

(By The Associated Press.)

The army, in flying the mails, is starting a much-curtailed network. The post office department plans to give the fighting fliers more work to do as the time goes on.

The air corps is undertaking, under present arrangements, to fly on a 24-hour basis over about 12,000 miles of airways. This is a little less than half the route mileage for which the private concerns had contracts.

The commercial companies' mail planes had been flying a total of about 85,000 miles daily. Mileage initially announced for the army totaled 42,570.

Postmaster General Farley announced last yesterday a number of new routes would be added when the service is next expanded. No date for this expansion was announced.

Intensive Tax Drive By State Dept. Today

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 20 (AP)—The state tax department today began an intensive drive to secure returns and payments from all delinquent taxpayers under the one per cent retail sales tax law.

This action followed revelation by Deputy Tax Commissioner John H. Thompson that the receipts for the eight months the tax had been in effect total $14,471,829.88, which is less than had been expected.

The receipts to date in the various districts are: Albany, $1,786,502.59; New York, $8,513,555.59; Brooklyn, $2,916,255.24; Utica, $574,566.16; Syracuse, $550,892.81; Rochester, $758,369.62; Buffalo, $1,219,773.27.

Dollar Day Will Be Continued Here On Thursday and Friday

Storm Will Not Interfere With Plans of Local Merchants To Stage Big Dollar Day Wednesday, But They Will Continue the Offering of Bargains For Two More Days In Case Anyone Finds It Impossible To Get Here For the Opening Day—Record Crowds Anticipated.

THE COLD WEATHER AND PROPER VENTILATION

During the extreme cold weather such as Kingston has been having this winter, the question of proper ventilation in the home is most important. Not only is there the possibility of sewer or illuminating or other gas entering the house because of damage to the pipes created by the deep frost but also it is possible that stoves and other heating appliances may reduce the oxygen in the room or throw off products of combustion which are harmful. Most of these gases cause headaches or nausea, and continued exposure may cause asphyxiation or suffocation.

If strange odors or symptoms of this nature are detected, windows should be thrown open to provide proper ventilation. If the parties affected will call the Central Hudson Gas & Electric Corporation that company will gladly send an inspector which brings quick relief to persons affected by these gases.

Whole World Mourns Death of Hero King As He Lies in State

Royalty and High Officials of Many Lands Join With Masses in Mourning Albert I. King of the Belgians—Funeral Thursday.

Brussels, Feb. 20 (AP)—Brussels became today a mecca for the mourning.

Sorrowing subjects of Albert I. King of the Belgians, poured by the thousands into the black-draped capital and to the palace where lay the body of the monarch who fell to his death while mountain climbing Saturday.

Royalty from other lands came, too, and knelt at the bier to which the body was borne in the fantastic light of torches last night.

Persons of all ages and social circumstances formed a silent, sober line outside the palace, to be marshaled in by police for a last glimpse of one they knew as the "Knights King."

The palace will be open for the same purpose Wednesday. The body will be removed Thursday to the old Cathedral of Saint Gudule for the funeral services. Burial will be in the royal crypt at Laeken.

Queen Elizabeth, broken by grief, visited alone the body of her beloved husband and king before the body was removed from the royal chateau at Laeken in the gathering dusk yesterday.

New Ruler Friday

The 32-year-old Crown Prince Leopold, who will become King Leopold III Friday, walked behind the gun carriage which bore the body of his father along the three-mile route to the palace.

After the procession had left the chateau between massed, silent thousands, automobiles carried the widowed queen and her entourage ahead to await the body at the palace.

Before viewing the body, the bereaved queen received personally some of the visitors who came to offer condolences. Among these were the Grand Duchess of Luxembourg and her consort, and Premier Dommerey of France.

Afterward, she retired to the death chamber in the chateau and knelt in prayer beside the body of the king. Rising from her devotions, the queen leaned over the long familiar face. She was shaken by grief.

"It is the last time I can see him for this evening; I must surrender his body to the nation he loved," she was said to have sobbed to her ladies-in-waiting as she left the room with halting step.

Shortly before the mile-and-a-half long procession left Laeken, the house and senate met in Brussels for touching demonstrations of devotion. The meeting in the house of deputies was marred, however, by the action of a half-dozen Communists and Jewish separatists.

Dissenters Leave

Just before the prime minister, Count De Broqueville, rose to deliver a speech also repeated in the senate, formally notifying the members of the tragedy, the dissenters walked out of the chamber.

The communists recently called upon workers to refuse to recognize the future King Leopold III, but other political factions failed to respond. Count De Broqueville, who concluded by voicing the good-wishes of both houses for the heir to the throne, said that "By the greatness of the events and difficulties he (King Albert) encountered, he will live in history as the soldier king."

As nature prepared to thwart the good intention of Kingston merchants for their dollar day on Wednesday, with a heavy snowstorm most of Monday evening and continuing Tuesday, the forces of men worked to bring nature under control and had succeeded in a remarkable degree at noon today. The merchants, however, are taking no chances, and while the dollar day will go into full swing with the opening of stores Wednesday morning, it will continue on Thursday and Friday, in case anyone finds he is unable to get here for the first announced date.

At an early hour this morning the county snow plows had made at least two trips over main highways under the direction of James F. Loughran, highway superintendent, and the announcement was made that the plows would continue to keep the roads open. So those who are able to get from their yard to the roads need have no fear that they will be unable to continue on to the county seat for dollar day.

In the city snow covered all of the streets at dawn, but soon scores of men were at work clearing the drifts and making traffic less congested. These men are expected to continue at work so that driving conditions will be good when the sale opens.

The weather man added to the good fortune of the merchants today with the announcement this morning that the snow would stop and clear weather would prevail. It was also announced that the temperature would moderate for the shopper.

In connection with the sale an interesting bit of information comes from the New Paltz Normal School, where 750 girls are enrolled. Hearing of the sale a number of the young ladies will make a trip to take advantage of the bargains, and indications are that several bus loads will be on hand.

With large forces of men at work in city and county and the promise of clear, cold weather, the sale is expected to be a big success, and plans are going forward with speed to have everything in readiness for the event. Today windows were trimmed and lined with bargain, additional sales help was hired, and every man added to the biggest and best dollar day that Kingston has enjoyed in some time.

So the dollar day will go on as planned and the expectations are that it will measure both in crowds of shoppers and goods for sale to the announcements made before the storm.

Germany, Italy Urge Austrian Combatants, Each For Own Policy

(By The Associated Press.)

The question of whether embattled Austria shall become Nazi or Fascist reached a head today with Germany on the one side and Italy on the other shouting encouragement of their friends.

Austrian Nazis, biding their time during last week's gory struggles between Fascist forces of the government and the Socialists, came into action with a demand that the government of Chancellor Dollfuss come to terms with them within eight days.

Speaking by radio from Munich, Theodore Habicht, exiled Austria Nazi leader, said his party must be taken into the government.

Official reaction from the Dollfuss government was lacking as its leaders began a study of the ultimatum. Paris regarded the affair as bringing to a "showdown" the struggle between Hitler and Mussolini for control in Austria.

Italian newspapers attacked Germany and pointed to the declaration of Saturday by Rome, France and Great Britain warning Germany that Austrian independence must be preserved.

Deputy Ezio Geribaldi of Italy proposed a conference to settle the Austro-German matter.

A German and two Austrians were arrested at Trieste with 350 bombs in their possession and the Nazi party at Trieste was ordered dissolved.

Treasury Receipts

Washington, Feb. 20 (AP)—The position of the treasury February 17 was: Receipts, $8,435,932.76; expenditures, $29,953,531.19; balance, $4,212,574.942.71; customs receipts for the month $14,793,933.15; Receipts for the fiscal year (since July 1), $4,625,951,254.49; expenditures, $4,924,265,769.39 (including $2,261,674,955.91 of emergency expenditures); excess of receipts $691,765,469.50. Heavy Snowstorm Breaks Over City Blocking Streets

Foot of Snow Had Fallen by 8 O'clock This Morning, and High Wind Drifted Snow to Depth of Several Feet—Snowplows Started Work at 7 a. m.—Three Phones Placed at Work and Four in to be Added.

One of the heaviest snow storms of the winter broke over Kingston early this morning, and soon the streets were buried under a blanket fully a foot in depth. The snow was accompanied by a high wind which drifted the snow to a depth of several feet. The street department did not start the work of opening the streets until 7 o'clock, and as a result householders—many of them left their cars in the garage rather than attempt to buck through several feet of snow.

The bus lines also encountered difficulty in making trips, and were unable to keep on schedule time. On Broadway, due to traffic, the busses were able to keep close to schedule time, but as the side streets had not been opened by the city plows the other bus lines operated under difficulties.

Owing to the heavy depth of snow that had fallen householders did not have the time this morning to shovel off their walks, and as a result school children found it difficult to plow through the snow to school.

Snow began falling Monday afternoon, but the fall was slight and at 11 o'clock that evening snow had ceased, but the storm again broke over the city at midnight and continued falling throughout the night and this morning.

The snow was accompanied by wind which drifted the snow to depths of from two to three feet. Householders who slept with open bedroom windows awoke this morning to find the floor under the windows laden with snow in some cases nearly an inch in depth.

The taxi companies did a rushing business responding to calls, but could not make fast time owing to the streets not being opened.

ADMINISTRATION PREPARING DRIVE TO DEFEAT BONUS

Washington, Feb. 20 (AP)—Growing house sentiment for action on a $2,300,000,000 bonus bill that calls for cash payment in greenbacks, found the administration preparing today for a drive to defeat it, or if not that, compromise.

The White House is strongly opposed to the measure, introduced last March by Representative M. Keown (D-Ohio). A copy of the bill was sent to the White House recently at the request of attaches there.

It is understood that President has referred it to Secretary Morgenthau of the treasury for a report.

Already 127 representatives have signed a petition in the House to force a vote on bringing a cash payment bill out of the ways and means committee. Only 18 more names are needed to put the house on record, and Democratic leaders generally conceded it would pass the house.

OSBORNE SETS SEARCH FOR STATE WOLF TALE

Saratoga Lake, N. Y., Feb. 20 (AP)—Conservation Commissioner Lithgow Osborne today joined Inspector Ray Burmaster, Major S. A. Goldman of the United States Biological Survey and four protectors near Owl's Head to check in person the oft-repeated reports wolf packs are running in the Adirondacks.

The party will equip themselves with snowshoes and inspect ten miles of trap lines.

In the evening Commissioner Osborne plans to attend a meeting of the Malone Fish and Game Club.

THREE MORE ARRESTS IN DRIVE ON DEFECTIVE LIGHTS

Monday the police department made three more arrests in its drive to have defective auto lights repaired. Grover F. Dunn of Tillson, George McDonough of Ten Broeck avenue, and Charles Manfro of Grand street were arrested that evening charged with operating their cars with no tail light lighted. Dunn and Manfro will have their hearings adjourned until later and McDonough was fined $2.

14 BELOW OR LOWER IS FORECAST FOR TONIGHT

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 20 (AP)—A temperature of 14 degrees below zero or lower was forecast for eastern New York tonight with continued cold weather tomorrow.

Public and private schools in a dozen places were closed because the driving snow storm and low temperature kept so many students at home.

All airplanes were grounded, trains and busses were hours late and motoring on all highways was handicapped or halted. State Troopers at the New Lebanon post advised automobile drivers not to attempt United States Route 20 between Albany and Pittsfield, Mass., because of the huge snow drifts at the foot of Lebanon Mountain.

Witnesses were unable to arrive at the Schoharie court house on time and the murder trial of Leonard Scarniel, New York gangster, was delayed. Many persons were unable to attend but the capital hearing on Governor Lehman's utility control bills was to be held.

New Yorkers Suffer From Heaviest Snow Storm in Many Years

World's Biggest City Crippled by Ice and Snow—Trains and Busses Fail to Run, Ferries Halted and Subways Blocked—Exchanges Open Late.

New York, Feb. 20 (AP)—New York city faced its worst predicament in years today, held fast in a sheathing of ice and snow that paralyzed its complicated transportation system and forced the New York Stock Exchange and commodity markets to postpone the opening of trading.

Virtually every form of transportation was either halted or crippled by the combination of a snowstorm of blizzard proportions following rain and a precipitate drop in temperature. The thermometer dropped to 9 above, the coldest February 20 in 31 years and the cold snap froze solid the layers of wet slush.

Long Island was virtually isolated and nothing moved on the line between 7 a. m. and 9:30 o'clock and the Twentieth Century Limited was nearly two hours late.

The Stock Exchange delayed the opening an hour until 11 a. m. and it was said it was the first time in 20 years the weather had necessitated such action. The New York curb and cotton exchanges also delayed the start of business.

The New York Curb Exchange posted notice of an hour's delay in the opening of trading, as did the securities section of the New York Produce Exchange. The New York Cotton Exchange fixed 10:45 as the opening hour. The New York Commodity Exchange announced that its opening would be postponed until 10:30 a. m.

An army of 35,000 men, equipped with shovels and picks, chipped and scraped to open streets.

Apartment house staffs swung axes to chop away ice sealing heavy street doors; subway travelers stood knee deep in rolling drifts of snow below street level waiting for trains.

Long Island was virtually isolated. Frozen switches and drifts completely stopped the Long Island railroad and bus lines. Snow plows were unable to clear the highways, covered some places to a depth of five feet. At Northport, every school was closed. Twenty policemen were marooned at Rosedale railroad station.

The Pennsylvania Railroad main line was open but the New York, New Haven and Hartford were running from 35 minutes to an hour late and the Erie and Central of New Jersey were running 20 minutes late.

Bus lines cancelled most morning schedules. Blue Club Coach Lines' reported two to three feet of snow on the highways with wind drifting the snow over the roadway as fast as city apparently was blinded by the crews cleared it. Greyhound Lines' snow did not see the approach reported buses from the west delayed greatest.

The subways, New York's greatest transportation medium, moved sporadically during the morning rush hours. Frozen switches, frozen doors, snow-piled elevated tracks, and cold generally hampered operations.

Ice flows in the Hudson jammed ferry slips and prevented Jersey commuters from reaching offices on time. The ferry Wilkes-Barre was forced to make seven attempts before reaching her slip to discharge passengers. Interstate traffic into and out of New York was commotioned.

from Boston and New Haven were reported stuck in drifts at Hartford and Bridgeport, Conn., while railroad dispatchers said deep snow on their north as thick N. Y., and between as far west as Toledo, Ohio, hampered operations.

Meanwhile, Hamden Air Transport reported its scheduled plane for Saturday morning cancelled at Hamden, Conn., because of the weather. The plane was en route to New York.

Dr. Hugh S. Chidester of Saugerties was seriously injured about 2:45 o'clock this morning when his Chevrolet coach and a big Mack milk truck were in collision on the Saugerties road near the George T. Bayer gas station in the same locality where a few days ago Helen Nicholson was fatally injured when she was struck by a Ford car allegedly operated by William T. Mehrmann, Sr., of Quarryville.

The accident happened during the blinding snow storm which was raging at the time. Dr. Chidester was driving south toward Kingston and the Mack tank truck, driven by Smith, Paurett White of Route 1, Kingston, was going north enroute to Kortright for a load of milk. The truck was owned by the Dairymen's League.

A call was sent in for the Conner Ambulance Service but that call was cancelled when James Abbott of 77 North Front street came along on his way to Saugerties. Dr. Chidester was placed in the Abbott car and taken to the Kingston Hospital where he was attended by Dr. Meyers and Dr. Krom. X-rays were taken and a fracture of the head was disclosed. The fracture extends from the upper jaw along the skull near the base. His condition was reported as serious.

According to the statements made during the investigation which Trooper Arthur Rellly and Deputy Sheriff Clayton Vredenburg conducted, the Mack truck was proceeding north in the lane which had been plowed. The Chevrolet coach was proceeding south in the cleared lane. As the two cars approached they both started to turn to the right. The driver of the truck claims the Chevrolet car started to skid and struck the rear of the truck. Dr. Chidester was thrown clear of his machine and to the pavement while his car continued on to its right of the road and ran into the ditch where it was badly damaged.

Mr. White stopped his truck and went to the aid of Dr. Chidester and assisted in placing him in the Abbott car which came along at that time. Later Mr. Abbott reported to Sheriff Saxo that he had taken the injured man to the hospital, he stated that Dr. Chidester was the family physician but that he had not recognized him when he picked him up due to the severe wounds about the head and face but on the way to the hospital had recognized the doctor.

Immediately after the accident Dr. Chidester was unconscious but regained consciousness while being placed in the Abbott car. However he went into a coma shortly after arriving at the hospital and no statement was made by him although at the direction of District Attorney Cleon B. Murray Deputy Sheriff Abram Molynaux and Grand Juror Stenographer William P. Glass went immediately to the hospital to secure such a statement.

His condition is reported as serious.

A further investigation is being conducted by Sergeant Cunningham, Troopers Senecal and Riley.

Senator Wicks Would Spend $12,000,000 For Work on Highway

Senator Arthur H. Wicks of Kingston, representing the 35th District in the state legislature, introduced in the Senate Monday night a bill appropriating $12,000,000 for highway construction.

The senator, when asked today by a Freeman reporter about the bill, said: "I introduced the bill because the budget made no provision out of the general fund for highway construction and no provision for state aid to counties for county roads; also out of favor to the motorists who are paying a heavy sales tax on gasoline and also as an aid to unemployment relief."

Amsterdam, N. Y., Feb. 20 (AP)—The badly mutilated body of a woman was taken from the tracks of the New York Central Railroad here today.

She had been run over by a reported two to three feet of snow on the highways with wind drifting the snow over the roadway as fast as city apparently was blinded by the crews cleared it. Greyhound Lines' snow did not see the approach reported buses from the west delayed greatest.

CLINTONDALE

Clinton, Feb. 20.—The first of a series of classes for teachers will be held in the Dutch Reformed Church of New Paltz Tuesday evening when the Leadership Training School will begin at 7 p. m. The teachers of the Clintondale Methodist Church will attend.

The regular Epworth devotionals meeting was held on Sunday evening in the Sunday School rooms of the Methodist Church. The Epworth League of Highland, New Paltz, Modena and Lloyd united with the Clintondale League in this service. Miss Adeline Roland of Clintondale was the leader. Dr. Herbert E. Wright, former superintendent of the Newburgh District of Methodist Churches but now of Drew Seminary at Carmel, was the principal speaker of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smalley and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fowler spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd.

Mr. and Mrs. William Doolittle and family of Modena spent Sunday afternoon with relatives here.

The regular prayer meeting service will be held on Thursday evening at the home of Lewis Slicker on Mill street. After the business of the meeting the regular monthly official board meeting of the Clintondale Methodist Church will be held. All are welcome.

Oscar Feldt has returned to his home here after spending several days in Poughkeepsie.

Mrs. Louis Covert entertained William Palmer and aunt, Miss Emma Palmer, of Ardona, at her home here on Wednesday.

Mrs. Ralph Harcourt and son, Egbert, were Sunday guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Egbert Fowler, in Plattekill.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Strongman entertained their daughter, Miss Mildred Strongman, of Albany, for a few days.

Miss Elizabeth Brown spent Sunday in Gardinerstown as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gerow and Mrs. Evelyn Elliott.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Auchmoody and Mr. and Mrs. Silas Halstead and Clarence Freer were callers in Olive Bridge on Monday afternoon.

At the regular church service on Sunday evening churches of Modena, Highland, New Paltz and Lloyd united with the Clintondale Methodist Church in the regular call to worship. The Rev. Robert Giles, pastor of the church, was assisted by the Rev. Robert L. Mauterstock of New Paltz, the Rev. Herbert Kallender of Highland and the Rev. B. Russell Branson, pastor of the Clintondale Friends Church, and Dr. Herbert E. Wright of Carmel. H. Shelley of the New Paltz church rendered a beautiful solo, "Hark, Hark My Soul". Mrs. George Alhusen and Miss Helena Terwilliger sang a duet accompanied by Mrs. Albert Terwilliger at the organ. The sermon was preached by Dr. Wright. It is hoped that the churches will again meet for another union service.

SIGNS WARNING MOTORISTS PLACED ON ARBOKAN HIGHWAY

Shokan, Feb. 20.—Signs have been placed along the concrete state road near its north junction with the boulevard, warning motorists of a bad spot in the pavement at that point. The concrete has buckled here the entire width of the pavement, making a dangerous bump in the case of cars traveling at a high speed. A similar condition exists in the pavement of the north boulevard opposite the post office at Glenford. The boulevard in many places has become badly worn this winter and there will be plenty of repair work for the city's maintenance force next spring and summer.

YOU'LL HAVE TO TAKE YOUR LUNCH TO SCHOOL TODAY, BETTY

DON'T FORGET THE COOKIES MOTHER—

TELL ME HOW!

USE RINSO! IT SOAKS OUT DIRT AND SAVES SCRUBBING. CLOTHES COME 4 OR 5 SHADES WHITER

NEXT MONDAY NIGHT

SO YOU HAD LUNCH AT HOME TODAY, BETTY—

YES, AND MOTHER DOES WE WASH A QUICK, EASY WAY NOW—WITH RINSO!

IT'S YOUR OWN FAULT—

IF YOU THREW OUT THIS WASHBOARD—YOU'D SAVE LOTS OF WORK AND GET WHITER WASHES, TOO

"Gets clothes whitest ever!" says Mrs. M. E. Bruck, 90 Murray St.

NEVER use anything else but Rinso in my wash. It gets clothes the whitest I ever saw—and it's really more economical, a little gives a box of rich pink that hold up. I use it for the wash, for the dishes, and for all cleaning.

MRS. M. E. BRUCK, 90 Murray St., Kingston, N. Y.

The makers of 40 famous washing machines—the home-making experts of 316 leading newspapers—recommend Rinso for safety and for whiter, brighter washes. It's been used and approved by Good Housekeeping Institute. Safe for colors—easy on hands. A little gives lots of rich, lively, lasting color—over in hands now. Try it!

South Boston Laborer Held in Girl's Death

Boston, Feb. 20 (AP)—A South Boston laborer was held at police headquarters today for questioning in the slaying of 14-year-old Victoria David, whose beaten body was found yesterday in a shallow excavation in the South End district. The laborer was booked as Frank Bennett, 23, and was listed as a suspect in the case.

Police Captain James R. Claffin said newspapermen he believed "the case is near solution."

The body of the David girl was found less than half mile from the factory in which the body of Ethel Zuckerman, 18, a knife through her throat, was found on the night of December 20. The Zuckerman girl's slayer has not been apprehended.

Testimony Begins In Scarnici Case

Judge Loughran's Car Skidded Yesterday and Went into Ditch on Way to Schoharie—Was Uninjured—Jury Complete.

Schoharie, N. Y., Feb. 20 (AP)—With a jury and two alternates seated and the opening addresses concluded, the trial of Leonard Scarnici, got down to the taking of testimony today.

John J. Kelly, assistant district attorney of Rensselaer county, in his remarks to the jury yesterday, said he did not believe it necessary to show that Scarnici fired the shot that killed Detective James A. Stevens last May during a holdup of a Rensselaer bank.

"If we prove that the shots were fired from within the bank," he said, "we hope to get a verdict of first degree murder."

The New York gangster is being retried here on a charge of venue. At a previous trial at Troy, the jury disagreed in his case and acquitted two co-defendants.

William H. Murray, the mobster's counsel, told the jury it must be proved, beyond a reasonable doubt, that Scarnici fired the fatal shot before he could be found guilty.

Supreme Court Justice John T. Loughran arrived here yesterday morning in his automobile. While driving from his home in Kingston the car skidded and ran into a ditch.

Shaken, but not injured, the justice caught a ride here with a passing motorist.

Governor Firm on His "No Compromise"

Stand On Mayor LaGuardia's New York City Economy Legislation Not Changed In The Slightest, He States.

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 20 (AP)—Governor Lehman stood firm today on his "no compromise" stand on Mayor LaGuardia's New York city economy legislation.

Although the governor did not reveal his conversation last night over the telephone with Postmaster General James A. Farley at Washington, the belief was general that the Democratic leader had sought to effect the compromise in the measure of exempting county employees from its provisions.

"Mr. Farley must speak for himself," said the governor. He reiterated previous statements that he would enter into no compromise with Democratic leaders who have thus far been successful in holding up the legislation that Mayor LaGuardia says he needs to straighten out the Metropolitan finances.

Senator John J. Dunnigan, Democratic majority leader, arrived just before the session last night.

Both he and Assemblyman Irwin Steingut, the Democratic chief in the lower house, did not discuss the matter last night with the governor.

Although party chiefs will call on the governor tomorrow, his position already has been made clear.

"My position has not changed in the slightest," he said after his talk with Farley. "I am for the bill in its present form."

Fishing Schooner Battered by Heavy Seas

Crew of 10 Cling to Ripping While Coast Guard of Cuttyhunk Island Try to Shoot Life Line to Ship—Helpless in Channel.

Cuttyhunk, Mass., Feb. 20 (AP)—Looming badly, rudderless, her crew of ten clinging to the rigging, the fishing schooner Hope Leslie was battered by the seas off Cuttyhunk Island today while the coast guard of the island station stood on shore, 500 feet away, helpless to aid.

The surfmen of the Cuttyhunk Coast Guard Station had their beach apparatus on the sands and were prepared to bring the ten men off the schooner via a breeches buoy.

The schooner had not grounded. Heavy seas crashed her wooden sides and roared across her decks as she lay helpless in the channel 500 feet from shore. Her crew clung to the rigging to save themselves from being washed overboard. Her anchor was down in an attempt to halt her drift.

The Cuttyhunk coast guardmen were unable to use their surfboat, which was locked in the ice floes and the only hope seemed to be a line shot from their beach gun to the rigging of the Leslie. It was a slight hope with a blizzard howling fiercely—so fiercely that any line, it seemed, would be carried far from its mark.

Meanwhile coast guards at the Woods Hole base waited anxiously for word of the patrol boat 235, sent out to aid the Leslie. She had not reported to her base after nearly four hours at sea.

Cuttyhunk Island lies off the southern shore of Massachusetts at the western entrance to Buzzard's Bay.

Notorious Gangster Found Dead Today

"Baby Face" Palmisano, 33, Discovers Slumped in Auto Seat, Bullet-ridden—Arrested 17 Times Since 1917.

Buffalo, N. Y., Feb. 20 (AP)—The body of Anthony "Baby Face" Palmisano, 33, notorious underworld character of the Niagara frontier, was found today slumped in the seat of an automobile parked near the site of the new Grand Island bridge on the River Road.

Palmisano, called a public enemy by a former police commissioner, with a record of arrests ranging from robbery to counterfeiting, was shot several times through the head and body, evidently by some one riding in the automobile with him. Tonawanda police who discovered the body said there were two bullet holes in the windshield of the machine. Police Chief Elmer Mang, of Tonawanda, said Palmisano probably was talking to a man in the rear seat when he was killed. Tracks in the snow showed that the killer's car evidently was followed by another machine in which the assassins escaped after the shooting.

Although arrested 17 times since 1917 when he first came to the notice of the police, Palmisano has served only two prison terms exceeding one year. The stiffest sentence he received was in 1919 when a Little Valley jury convicted him and three others of robbing the State Bank at Randolph. Each received sentences of seven to 10½ years.

Additional Supplies Of Federal Food Here

Additional supplies of federal surplus food have been received at the commissary, operated by the Board of Public Welfare, in the water department barn, adjacent to the city hall. The allotment received includes flour and cereal. Everyone holding identification cards issued at the home relief office is instructed to visit the commissary only on days stated on their card. Each person is also reminded to bring shopping bags or baskets to carry the supplies given them.

Mrs. Roosevelt Was Visitor at Wallkill

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, wife of the president, who has a deep interest in the penal institution of the United States, spent Monday at Medium Security Prison, Wallkill, and according to reports was very much impressed with conditions at the institution.

Mrs. Roosevelt made a complete inspection of the prison, visiting its various workshops, classes of instruction in the trades taught there and enjoyed selections by the band under the direction of Harry Walden, holder of Kingston, who teaches music at the institution.

Snowstorm Causes Postponements Here

The entertainment that was to have been held this evening at the Fair Street Reformed Church has been postponed until Tuesday evening of next week owing to the storm of today.

The Parent-Teacher Association of the high school will not meet today on account of the snow. The date of the meeting will be announced later.

The dance will continue from 8:30 to 12:30 and the music will be furnished by Randy Winston's orchestra.

YOUR GROCER HAS THIS SUNNY WAY TO BETTER HEALTH

Check Common Constipation with a Delicious Cereal

Food has a lot to do with how you feel and how you look. For instance, you need plenty of "bulk" with your meals to avoid the risk of common constipation.

This ailment frequently causes headaches, loss of appetite and energy. Yet, in most cases, it can be overcome pleasantly and safely by eating a delicious cereal.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN furnishes "bulk" in convenient and concentrated form. Laboratory tests show the "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is safe and effective. In fact, it is much like that found in leafy vegetables.

Within the body, the fiber of ALL-BRAN absorbs moisture, and forms a soft mass. Gently, this clears out the intestinal wastes.

In addition, ALL-BRAN provides vitamins B and iron.

Isn't this sunny way better than taking patent medicines—so often harmful? Two tablespoonsful of ALL-BRAN daily are usually sufficient. Chronic cases with each meal. If seriously ill, see your doctor. ALL-BRAN makes no claim to be a "cure-all."

Enjoy ALL-BRAN as a cereal, or cook into appetizing recipes. Be sure you get Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. It contains much more needed "bulk" than part-bran products. In the red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Teach your daughter how to guard her health

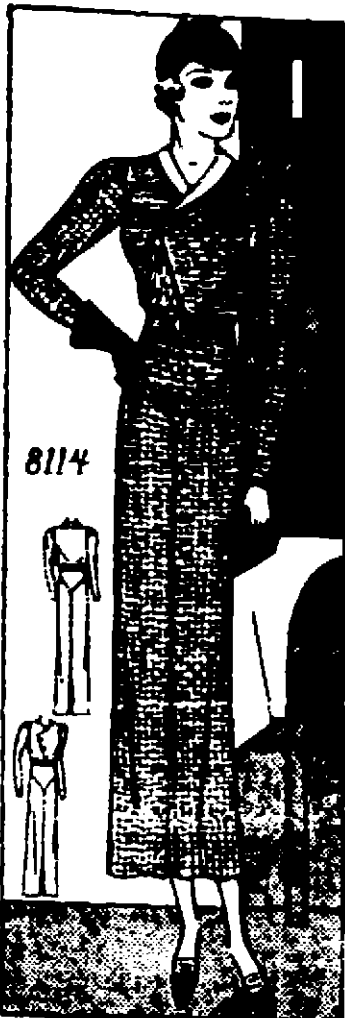

Mother... You Must Do Your Part

Most girls need a tonic and regulator when they come to womanhood. If your daughter is languid, nervous and cranky... if she complains of new pains and aches... if she takes Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound regularly. When she is a happy, healthy wife and mother she will thank you.

"My daughter Leona is a stenographer and switchboard operator. She was nervous and weak and often had to stay home from work. Never cared to go anywhere, lost her appetite and always had headaches. Your Compound helped her wonderfully. She is more peppy and can work now every day."—Mrs. E. Tremaine, 2305 W. Jackson Ave., Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

OUR DAILY PATTERNS

Trim and Smart in Two Ways.
8114—Nothing extreme about this model, but correct style and becoming lines, and the choice of a collarless neckline. Or a small shawl collar crossing the waist fronts, and slightly rolled in coat style. The skirt is mounted on pointed yoke sections. Low placed pleat fulness defines the centre and adds interesting width to slim lines. The sleeve is a popular model, with soft gathers at the armhole, effecting width for the shoulder lines.

Velvet with satin or crepe for jabot or collar is suggested. Or try it in the new rough silks or ribbed woolen in monotone relieved by the jabot of white linen or crepe in a contrasting color.

Designed in 6 sizes: 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 and 44. Size 38 in monotone 3 1/2 yards of 54 inch. Collar and jabot in contrasting 39 inch 1/2 yard. Collar alone 1/2 yard. Jabot of lace 2-3 yard, 4 inches wide.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 12c in coin or stamps by the Pattern Department, The Freeman, Kingston, N. Y. Be sure to state the size wanted.

Box Jacket

The longer box jacket strikes a new note in spring fashions. The one here illustrated is in gray with a bow scarf in a vivid Roman striped taffeta.

TWEED WEAVE WINS FAVOR FOR SPRING

Brown, Gray, Beige and Pale Green the Colors.

Tweed weaves made mostly of tightly twisted threads are being used for the spring ensemble idea. It comes in a plain and a patterned material to be used together in the same costume.

There is decidedly more pattern in wearing. Many materials have as many as three colors, used effectively and discreetly.

There are several reversible materials; the sides differ not only in weave but in color.

Soft browns, grays and beige, pale green and, we are happy to report, great quantities of black and navy are seen in the new spring rainbow.

Strawberry pink is with us again and with this outburst of reported brilliant colors we can pretty well count on pastels for summer.

In the novelty end of the fabrics are:

A heavy knit's veiling, for frocks.

A diagonal raised rib, solid color.

A cross between a wool poplin and a linen weave.

A will fiber weave, yarn dyed, in pastels.

A dress material with a faint stripe, darker shade than the material itself.

And a nice new close flannel weave.

EVENING SWANK

By CHELSEY NICHOLS

According to the dictates of fashion, evening swank calls for a velvet cape accurately matched to the color of the formal gown with which it is worn. The costume pictured is in rich ruby red. The dress is fashioned of handsome faille silk. Fullness about the knees is accented by means of ruffles inserted along the widening gores of the slim-at-the-hips princess-cut gown. Maggie Rouff, the creator of this distinctive ensemble, trims the matching red velvet cape with fox which achieves a high collar and simulates a deep yoke effect. All sorts of velvet capes glorify the evening picture this season, the three-quarter military cape sans fur being particularly good style.

FLASHES FROM PARIS

News concerning fashions is flattering. Ruffled nets flourish among evening fashions.

Satin continues in high favor.

Tendency is to push trimmings toward the back on evening gowns.

Interest is shown in pleated and scalloped edges.

Forward flare introduced by Schiaparelli is new movement for coats.

Cord and tassel trimmings play interesting role.

Gloves Become Important

Link in Whole Ensemble

The glove field, which was once limited to the selection of town and sport models, now includes semi-sport, afternoon, tea time and evening gloves. Handwoven French felts and pigskins are the best current choices for sport-wear. The semi-sport and town gloves include Rodier woolsens of every conceivable type and combination.

Suedes and glaze kids are smart for town, but this season the addition of numerous decorative touches is an important fashion factor. For late afternoon, velvets, silks and bengalases are advocated. Gloves are no longer regarded as an accessory, but rather as an important link to complete ensemble correctness.

ACCORD.

Accord, Feb. 20.—The Accord post office will be open on Washington's Birthday, Thursday, February 22, from 7:30 to 10 a. m. There will be no R. F. D. service on Thursday.

The regular monthly dinner will be served by the ladies of the M. E. Church at the church hall Thursday, February 22, at 12 o'clock noon. Virginia baked ham, boiled potatoes, pickles, jelly, brown and white bread, coconut cream pie, coffee. The public is invited. There will be a business meeting at 2:30. Members of the Ladies' Aid are requested to attend.

FASHIONS by ELEANOR GUNN

From an Exponent of the Higher Crown

A Flurry in Butterflies

New York—Fashion stories for the next week or later should really carry a Paris, instead of a New York date line, for even when written from New York, they are bristling with data of the Paris openings.

It is rather exciting to follow the cable and to try to visualize the weird revelations some of them contain, like this sudden flurry in butterflies, for instance, already reported as a Dittusha notion, and revived again in the Ardanne reports. There are several dresses at Ardanne with butterflies hither and yon, mostly at the neckline. This house also makes most effective use of lace, string lace and things of that ilk for everyday sort of usage, even for beach wear.

There is, one gathers, a feeling for softer clothes. There is also certainly a tendency to combine fabrics that have heretofore hardly even a bowing acquaintance. As for instance the unusual combination of linen and satin. This meeting occurred at the rather conservative house of Miller Seura. This house has gone "dotty", if one can say so, embroidering dots on natural linen, introducing them on net and on all manner of things.

There's plenty of lace there, too, cleverly used, and often in a rich antique tone used as a trimming for sheer black or navy, mounted as you may have already guessed over tulle.

There's a frock of checked cotton net over tulle that seems to have gone over big and will no doubt be seen when our imports arrive and are displayed, a matter of no time at all now.

Miller Seura have a reputation for dresses a lady likes to wear, and this season finds them maintaining it by showing very wearable things in surah, a silk dear to the Victorians. There are some, not many, prints, usually offered in tunic effects combined with plain material. The tunics are fairly long.

SPRING WALKING

Copyright, 1934, by Fairchild

A dress fashioned of black crepe, has nice detail at the neckline with the shallow flaring ruffle and lace with the stitched treatment at shoulders is repeated in the belt.

DID YOU KNOW THAT

Gold is surging particularly to the front, both in novelty and precious jewelry. Some accessory makers are using dull, or bronzy or greenish gold. This is part of the revival of the 1900 so-called Nouveau Art Epoch, which is apparent in several collections.

KRIFFLEBUSH

Krifflebush, Feb. 20.—The Valentine box social and entertainment was well attended. Much credit is being received by the young people who gave the free entertainment which was much enjoyed by all present. The amount cleared was $23.69, which will be used for minister's salary. Thanks are extended to everyone who helped in any way to make it a success. All sympathize with Lewis Lounsbury, who had an active part in the entertainment and was taken ill last Thursday. Miss Virginia L. Christiansa substituted for him successfully. His many friends wish him a speedy recovery.

The Roundout Valley Sunday School Convention will be held in the Hurley church Friday evening, February 23, at 7 o'clock. All members of the Sunday school are urged to attend this convention.

Miss Deulah Van DeMark and W. Hutchins of Mettacaabots visited her grandmother, Mrs. Jane Van DeMark, recently.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Ermack and Mrs. Mary Smith have returned home after spending some time in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert A. Davis called on relatives in this place on Lincoln's birthday.

All are glad to hear Mrs. Howard Van Aken is at home recovering nicely, following her recent operation.

Friends of Mrs. R. J. Harrison are very glad to hear she is improving from her long illness.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Smith of this place with Mr. and Mrs. Japhet Christiansa and Simeon Roosa of Lyonsville visited Mrs. Emma Roosa, Thursday, who is ill at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Smith at Middle-town.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde J. DuBois and daughter, Thyr, spent Sunday with relatives in this place.

Mrs. Jane Van DeMark is spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. John Van DeMark at Mettacaabots.

Mrs. Ida Conner entertained a number of relatives Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Roosa and children of Kingston called on their mother, Mrs. L. M. Roosa Friday evening.

"Sun Dogs" Over High Point

Shokan, Feb. 20—"Sun dogs," or rainbow effects similar to those seen at Hornell the latter part of the week, were noted over High Point two weeks ago during one of the cold snaps. Shokan people who witnessed the phenomenon, said to result from a reflection of ice crystals in the air, reported it as having been a beautiful sight.

CUPID: "You're not the only girl I've seen surrounded with admirers after taking that same advice of mine. It's my favorite ally, that soap."

CUPID: "When did I prescribe for you? You've turned men's hearts and heads so often that I can't remember when you needed my advice."

CAROLE: "Men certainly do fall for a lovely complexion, don't they, Dan? And I'm certainly much obliged for that tip you gave me years ago."

CAROLE: "Well, once upon a time you told me always to use Lux Toilet Soap—and I

PHOENICIA

Phoenicia, Feb. 20.—The Whitney
Jose Co. will have an entertainment Saturday evening, February 24, in the I. O. O. F. Hall. A two-act play,
"The Red Lamp," will be a part of the program. Those taking part in the play are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Miller, the Misses Harriet Loomis and Ruth Shurtler and Lloyd Kinsey and Billy McGrath, Jr.

William Kirk received injuries when thrown from a truck. His friends are glad he is improving.
Master Robert Van Kleeck ran into a barb wire fence while riding down hill and was quite badly injured. He was taken to the hospital and his injuries attended to. Fortunately he will not lose his eye as was first believed.

George Baldwin and Adrian Loomis were Margaretville callers Saturday.

Miss Ball of Kingston visited her friend, Miss Betty O'Keefe. They attended the basketball game Friday evening at Chichester.

The Misses Frances Hill and Lorna Van Demark entertained a party of friends Friday evening after the basketball game. Delicious refreshments were served.

Gross Warren of the C. C. C. camp recently visited his sister, Mrs.
Frank Simmons.

Lights of New York

by L. L. SEVISON

Ramblings and ruminations: These brown little pills over the Potomac.
Glimmering in the sunlight like miniature glaciers... and how bold these great bluffs without a screen of foliage... Little rags shepherding long rows down the Hudson... But most of the bargains are enjoying a season of rest... Chattering children congregated about a stage caterer... and not a far cry to the crowd... Street sellers of silk scarfs doing a brisk business at a half dollar each... Seemingly New York will buy anything offered by a pitchman.
... Gen. John F. O'Bryan swinging down Broadway... He's put the military spirit into the department.
... Indications are that racketeers will have hard going... He doesn't care for them... and the mayor has announced that political influence will mean nothing to the police...
The spire of the Chrysler building to this light looks like one of those fancy cakes that adorn restaurant windows.

Tramway kids hauling toy express wagons loaded with wood... An old parking case is a treasure to them.
Robert Hunt Lyman going into the Pulitzer building... He's been editor of the World Telegram for the last 11 years... and wishes that street corner arguers would buy the book instead of calling him up...
You know the line, "to settle a bet."
... Broadway looking as shabby as usual... But there is a big new electric sign advertising pharmaceutical products... Some new clubs already open... Others in prospect.
... Better programs all around...
Also increased business... Some have become quite snooty with prosperity... Even waiters snarl at patrons... Prices not much different than in the past... Liquids more authentic, however... Reminds me of the woman who insisted on "real pre-prohibition liquor"... Don't know whether she got it.

A junkman pushing his cart across Times Square with cowbells jangling.
... What a bucolic touch! Dr. William T. Hornaday, former director of the Bronx zoo... Past seventy-nine but still battling for the wild life of America... John Golden who started that system of "pre-views"... Opened
"Talent" without inviting the critics.
... Let it run along a couple of weeks with only cash customers... Studied their reactions... Dwight Deere Wiman did the same thing... Wonder what will happen if the discovery is made that critics aren't necessary?
... Anyway, it's novel having tryouts right on Broadway... Saves a lot of expense too... and if there are any steady customers, they see a different show every night... Because of the changes... There's Fred Kesting who I like a lot in "All Good Americans"... He's still keeping up with his magic, however... Makes nightly appearances at the Palais Royale.

Fifth avenue and Fifty-Seventh street... Where the huge stone residence of Cornelius Vanderbilt used to stand... Present owners of property, who razed the costly chateau, having mortgage trouble... Six million dollars worth... Some day I'll fall for one of those $14 shirts...
Jo Davidson, who is making a bust of President Roosevelt... Paul Manship has also made one... That kayak wanted ad has run several days in the Herald Tribune... Wonder who wants a kayak and why?... Still with all that ice in the Hudson a kayak might be useful... Addison Darland y Nietro, New York representative of the Cuban National Tourist commission... His job is to convince winter vacationists that Cuba is safe for Americans... and that there's still gayety despite the shooting.

Ecuador Lifts Ban
on Cigar Lighters

Quayquil.—Another prohibition law has failed. This one had nothing to do with intoxicating beverages. It prohibited the possession and use of patent cigarette lighters in Ecuador.

The fact that frequently they fail to light had nothing to do with the prohibition. Ecuador among other things has a government match monopoly, and the prohibition was intended to eliminate the competition of the patent lighters.

However, since people have ignored the law and used lighters, the latter will be taxed at from $1 to $5 a year, the lowest rate applying to lighters made of nickel and the highest to those made of gold.

"There's the doorbell again"

SUPPOSE daily to your door came the butcher, the grocer, the clothier, the furrier, the furniture man, and every other merchant with whom you deal? What a tedium of doorbell answering that would mean!

It would be even more impractical for you to visit daily all these stores to find out what they have to offer and the price.

And yet you need those merchants' service quite as much as they need your patronage. Contact between seller and consumer is essential in the supplying of human needs. Before a sale can be closed the goods must be offered. Every day, through the advertising columns of this newspaper, the merchants of this city come to your home with their choicest wares. Easily, quickly, you get the news of all that is worth while in the market-places of the world.

They are not strangers at the door, but merchants you know and trust. You are always surer of high quality and fair price when you buy an article advertised by a reputable firm.

Old Junk

By MARY GRAHAM BONNER

Willy Nilly and Mrs. Quacko waited until it was daylight to continue their search for the automobile Two-Ways.

"We'll get on wrong roads and become confused," Willy Nilly said.

He tried to sleep in the coupe, but he couldn't get in a comfortable position. Mrs. Quacko perched on the steering wheel and, putting her head under her right wing, slept soundly all through the night.

Willy Nilly was stiff and tired when the sun came up. Evidently, thought he, the sun had enjoyed a good sleep, for it came up so very slowly.

"I have an idea it was in this direction that we left it," Mrs. Quacko quacked, and so they started off once more.

"No," it should be fast along here," Mrs. Quacko said, as she slowed down, but no car was to be seen.

"I have an idea it was in the opposite direction," Willy Nilly said, and they turned that way, but there wasn't an automobile in sight anywhere, though they looked and looked ever so hard.

"No one could have moved it before now," Willy Nilly told Mrs. Quacko.

Quacko, "because there was too much snow to get it out of the bank where it had skidded."

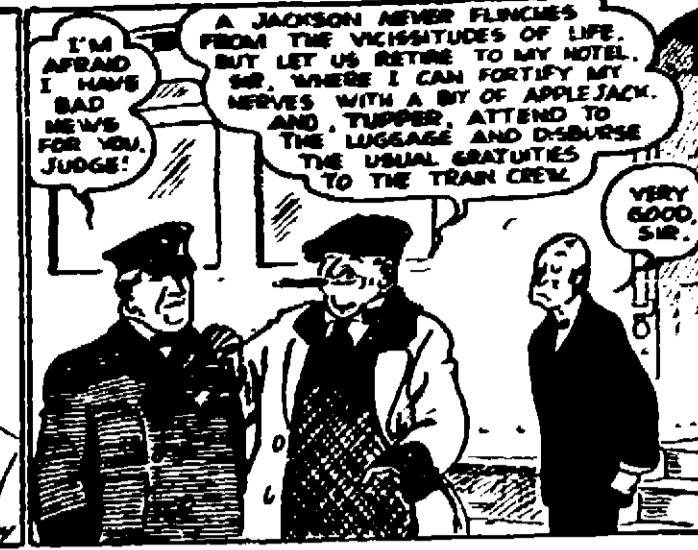

"That's true, quack, quack. We simply must be at the wrong spot."

"No, we're not. I'm sure now!" cried Willy Nilly in an excited voice.

"I remember that stump and those three trees close together. Oh, there's some old junk in that hollow! Can that be my automobile Two-Ways?"

CAS HUGGINS—The Mystery Solved.

PORT EWEN
Port Ewen, Feb. 20.—Mrs. Vital Le Fever of Broadway is visiting her son, Oscar, and family in New York city.

Miss Ruth Lapine, student nurse at the Kingston Hospital, and who is now doing extension work in Bellevue Hospital, New York city, spent a night recently at her home on Green street.

The Rev. Philip Goerts, pastor of the Port Ewen Reformed Church, thanks all those who helped to make the recent plays held in the church house so successful.

Henry Deane, Sr., is ill at his home on Broadway.

Miss Alice Lapine is ill at her home on Green street.

The Junior League meets in the church house under the leadership of the Misses Harriet Clark and Lois Jump at 3:15 Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Le Fever and baby of Bayonne, N. J., are visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vital Le Fever.

Epiphany Council, No. 42, Sons and Daughters of Liberty, will hold its regular meeting Wednesday evening.

Friday night will be basketball night for the boys of the M. E. Sunday school.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Morgan and family of Kingston spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Clark of Salem street. Mr. and Mrs. Morgan were former residents of Port Ewen.

There will be basketball games in the Reformed Church house this evening. The Sioux Five will play the Kingston High School Jaycees and the Scouts will play a preliminary game at 7:30 o'clock.

The pastor's class in preparation for church membership will meet at the M. E. Church parsonage at 3:15 Friday afternoon. Assignment: Lesson XX, "Why Do We Have Communism?"

The Port Ewen W. C. T. U. will entertain the Clatter Park W. C. T. U. Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Lynn.

The Ever Ready Club will have charge of the entertainment Thursday evening, the second night of the K. of P. fair in Pythian hall. The program is as follows: Sgt. Roger Mable and Wilson Tinney; Duet—Basil Potter, Jr., and Sterling Atkins; solo—Mrs. Gladys Hopper Tinney; fantasy—"A Dream" by Alice Williams Chaplin, members of the Ever Ready Club; solo, Mrs. Gladys Hopper Tinney.

The February meeting of the Pythian Society has been postponed until Friday evening, March 2, on account of the Pythian fair, which will be held in Pythian hall Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings of this week.

What Congress Is Doing Today

(By The Associated Press)

Senate

Considers naval construction measure and minor bills.

Former Postmaster General Brown continues testimony before air mail investigating committee.

Banking committee renews stock exchange inquiry.

Judiciary committee opens hearings on anti-lynching bill.

House

Considered bill on tax bill.

Labor committee hears Harry Hopkins, civil works administrator.

Interstate commerce committee resumes hearings on stock exchange regulation.

Politics at Random

THE administration plan to adjourn congress in May is causing much grumbling in scattered Washington sectors, but thus far the Roosevelt leaders are standing pat.

The President, himself, is said by these leaders to feel that the uncertainties attending a congressional session should be removed from the recovery picture as soon as practicable.

Those members of the senate and house who disagree are saying it is bad enough to have the whole legislative program written at the White House, without letting the President impose the crowning achievement of telling congress when to go home.

Suffering in Secret

BUT they say this privately, almost all of them. They realize there is little they can do about it. More than one member has told his friends that he has found Mr. Roosevelt more popular in his district than he himself is—and this is a campaign year.

So the grumbling means little in terms of roll calls. The house debate on the CWA appropriation bill shows numerous dissents, but the 332-to-1 vote demonstrated how feeble were these protests, even in the breasts of the protesters. It is the consensus that Mr. Roosevelt can get adjournment whenever he wants it.

The question seems to be how far he will think it wise to give in, as a matter of diplomacy and not of necessity.

A Cruel Prospect

ONE rallying point of those who oppose early adjournment is the fact that such a procedure would kill the last chance for members to get through their "private bills"—measures to grant a pension here and a few dollars' damages there, back in the home districts.

At the special session last year there was no such chance. Now the chance this year is fading; the house has opened the door to passage of some such bills, but it means nothing unless the senate acts too—and the senate calendar already is overcrowded.

Some members have just given up. One, who stirred up a lot of noise sometime back in introducing a bill especially favored in his district,

By BYRON PRICE
(Chief of Bureau, The Associated Press, Washington) was asked recently what its prospects were.

"Oh, that?" he replied. "Why, I got all the glory I ever expected out of it when I introduced it. I never thought it would get anywhere."

On The Other Hand—PRESSURE for a longer session is being exerted also by brain trusters who are hot for such proposals as a reciprocal tariff, unemployment insurance and stock market regulation.

But perhaps the most significant urge of all arises out of the civil works problem.

Suppose congress quits on May 1, leaving only a limited amount available for civil works. Suppose the tapering-off process proposed by Mr. Roosevelt stirs such a loud popular campaign-year clamor that it is expedient that the tapering off be stopped.

Without congress here to appropriate more billions, where will the administration be and where will the democrats who are running for re-election be?

That is what is worrying a lot of people in Washington. The President will hear plenty about it before he makes his final decision.

Lake Katrine Home Bureau.

HOLLYWOOD SIGHTS—SOUNDS

NOBODIES COONS
FULLWOOD—When Harry Jones decided to go on the stage, he took the best way to begin his career as a wardrobe.

And the logical place for that was a tailor's shop. So Harry's entry to show business was through a tailor's shop. This "tailor-made man" (in a manner of speaking) is the British actor known to Cecil R. DeMille for the role of Antony in "Cleopatra."

He is twenty-eight, six feet two inches tall, and comes pretty near to having that "chest that a Roman would camp on," as specified by DeMille.

Wilson was born in Dominica, British West Indies, educated in Jamaica and in Barbados, and began his career as a commercial traveler. He tried brokerage, too, but he had been in London a while and made up his mind that acting was what he really wanted to do.

Getting A Wardrobe

"I didn't any money, and I didn't any clothes," he relates, "so I thought if I went into a tailoring shop I could start building up a wardrobe, and save money at the same time."

As a salesman for the Road Street house, he got clothes at a discount, and when savings reached 25 pounds and his wardrobe was duly replenished, he gave up the job. He wanted to come to Hollywood, making the trip as some traveler's chauffeur, but that scheme went awry.

"I looked through the telephone directory for an agent's name," he says. "How long it took you can imagine, for I had come to the U. S. before I found one. I went around to the building, asked someone if he had an agent there, and was directed to a certain room. It was crowded but the agent happened to pass through and told me he could use me right away."

"It wasn't until later that I learned that my agent was not the one I'd found in the phone book, but another who happened to be in the same building."

Prefers Own Name

In six years on the stage he has appeared in some 150 roles, playing leads in 25 shows in London and in seven British movies. The name is well-known, which is one reason DeMille won't exercise his weakness for rechristening his stars.

Wilson thinks his own name will do.

Kingston: "Fashions of 1934."
 Another effort of beautiful girls, dance ensembles, camera angles, coupled with a giant cast that includes William Powell, Bette Davis, Hugh Herbert, Frank McHugh and Reginald Owen, all combine into a glittering unity of song, comedy and spectacle in this latest musical comedy effort of First National. William Powell is a suave and handsome gentleman who knows his women's fashions, and he steals the show with new creations away from dear old Paris. This show has more plot and moves faster than most of the former musicals, and is doubly enjoyable for that reason. Never has there been such an extravagant and awe-inspiring series of dance backgrounds as this talkie offers. The dance creations of Busby Berkeley are breath taking in their beauty, and the new fashions by the famous Orry-Kelly are worn perfectly by numerous models. Several new dance hits are sung and danced by a chorus of talented young women. All in all, the show is as good or better than all of the song and dance extravaganzas that have gone before.

Orpheum: "Christopher Strong" and "Last Trail." The reigning sensation, Katherine Hepburn, is the star of the opening feature, which is one of her best achievements. In the role of an aviator, Miss Hepburn falls in love with a married man. Neither expected it, least of all the man, for he has been happily married for almost 20 years. In order to save herself, the man, his wife and children, and a gigantic scandal, she sends her airplane into a dive and ends it all. Colin Clive is in the supporting cast. "Last Trail" is Zane Grey western drama, one of his best, and George O'Brien proves a virile and handsome hero.

Broadway: "Horse Play" and "Humanity." Slim Summerville and Andy Devine, two crazy comies if ever there were any, play the role of two unhappy cowboys who break in to the social life of England and save a lady from a bunch of jewel thieves. It is a show filled with numerous laughs, and Summerville and Devine form a perfect comedy duo. "Humanity" with Ralph Morgan, Boots Mallory, Alexander Kirkland and Irene Ware is the second attraction on the double bill. In this one, Ralph Morgan plays the role of an upstanding, righteous doctor who has a son that hasn't the noble virtues of his father.

EDDYVILLE.

Eddyville, Feb. 20.—The community was saddened to hear of the death of Mrs. Dubold Thursday, February 15, at her home in New Jersey. Mr. and Mrs. Dubold have a summer home here. A host of friends extend sympathy to Mr. Dubold and family.

Much sympathy is extended to the Diamond family in the death of their brother, James, who was one of the oldest and most respected residents here.

Mr. Thompson, who has charge of the work of repairing the Eddyville bridge, is boarding with Mr. and Mrs. George Riggins.

Wanda Sieradski and Walter Voorn are boarding with Mrs. F. Gromoll.

Harold Bryant, who was injured some time ago while sleigh riding, is again able to be out. He is still under the care of Dr. Ross.

Mrs. George Gulek of Newburgh spent a few days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Terpening.

Mr. Steigewald is ill at his home in New Salem. All hope to see him out again soon.

Mrs. Lamond has returned to her home on Cutler Hill, after spending several weeks in New York city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Firth of New Jersey spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Riggins.

Mrs. Schupelae of May Park, who has been sick with grip, is much better and able to be out.

Mr. Simmons of Syracuse University gave a very interesting illustrated lecture on "Forestry" at the Eddyville School one day recently. Many of the parents and friends of the children and teacher, Miss O'Connor, felt well repaid for attending as it was very instructive. All hope there will be more of these lectures given.

Anna Moran has returned from the hospital and is convalescing at her home on Cutler Hill.

The men of The Sacred Heart and Holy Name Church will give a minstrel in the church hall at Wilbur on Thursday evening, February 22.

UNION CENTER.

Union Center, Feb. 20.—Due to present weather conditions, Mrs. Joe Mutiek, janitor of the school, has a helper, A. Moldenhure.

Mrs. William McCarthy of New York has returned to her home after spending some time at the old stone house with her sister, Mrs. William J. Raftery.

Mrs. John Watje of Brooklyn has returned to her home after spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. Charles Bunje.

Charles Main is feeling better. R. H. Bunje is having his house painted.

Frank Wood of Uter Park spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. Van Etten.

There will be a Girls' 4-H meeting February 23 in the church on the hill.

Vernon Embree is slowly improving at his home in Union Center. The Ladies' Aid Society will hold its regular monthly meeting the first Thursday in March at the home of Mrs. Howard Barker.

Mrs. Jennie Terpening enjoyed a week-end at Mrs. C. Palen's in Escopus. The teachers of the Sunday School held their meeting in the church on Tuesday night to elect new officers. Aug. Cole has received a winter's job assisting Otto Gaudette at the Uter Park railroad station. The Ladies' Aid is planning to have a St. Patrick's supper in March.

Tips on CONTRACT

Hidden Moves

By TOM O'NEIL

There comes from the Marine and Field club, Brooklyn, a hand which was the cause of a wordy argument between partners, of whom one opened with a suit bid of two and the other let the bidding die so that a slam contract could not be reached.

The declarer took all the tricks with a pseudo-squeeze, which illustrates that it is a good thing to have the weaker hand dummy. Instead of the strong hand, so that holes cannot be detected by the opposition. Here was the hand:

WEST		EAST
♠ 10 9 8		♠ 10 9 8
♥ 10 9 8		♥ 10 9 8
♦ 10 9 8		♦ 10 9 8
♣ 10 9 8		♣ 10 9 8
NORTH		SOUTH
♠ 7 4 2		♠ 7 4 2
♥ 7 3		♥ 7 3
♦ 7 3		♦ 7 3
♣ 7 3		♣ 7 3

South started with an offer of two hearts. The opposition naturally passed. North bid two no trump. South offered three hearts. Much to South's indignation, North passed, the alibi being that he had an erroneous idea there was a part score.

"Just for that," remarked South, "I'll take all the tricks."

West opened the club three, which was covered by North's jack. West's queen and South's ace. Of course, now the hand is a laydown for 12 tricks of the dummy should be entered via the heart queen, a spade discarded on the club ace and a diamond truck lost.

South, however, saw a way that might give him all the tricks. He led over to the heart queen and at the risk of feasibility to re-enter North's hand returned to his own via a heart. He played the ace of spades and then ran the rest of the trump.

West had to find five diamonds on the run of hearts, choosing from four clubs to the ten spot, three diamonds to the queen and two spades to the king. The spade knave was one discard. He felt he had to keep the king because South might be trying to make a low spade. Three clubs were natural cards to shed, but West feared the ten must be protected. For his fifth discard, therefore, he let go a diamond.

That was all the declarer wanted. He led the ace and king of diamonds, the queen dropping, and then the North hand was entered with a diamond to take the last trick with a diamond and the king of clubs.

It was hard to guess for West what to hold, but had the contract been seven no trump with North playing the hand and the powerful South cards exposed, the pseudo-squeeze never would have been effective, since the diamond situation would have been obvious. The right gambling contract was seven hearts despite the lure of the 150 count for four aces at a no trump contract.

Opposite a sound opening suit bid of two a bid of three no trump by North might have been justified. In that case South would bid four hearts and North could offer five hearts to show support for a strong trump suit. Then South could have bid six hearts in safety and seven on a chance, since the raise in trumps would show that the hearts were not bunched against him and the three no trump over two hearts would show that North held approximately a quick trick plus.

FREIGHT TRAIN DERAILED

NEAR CLINTONDALE CROSSING

Clintondale, Feb. 20.—On Saturday afternoon a freight train on the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad, about 200 feet below the Clintondale crossing, was derailed by a defect in the rails. Considerable damage was done to the cars and quantities of coal, smoked and dressed meats were spilled and watchmen were placed on the scene. The engine and caboose, however, were not damaged and no one was hurt. The wrecker of the railroad soon arrived at the scene and work was started to clear the tracks so traffic could be resumed. Some delay was experienced but the line was soon opened.

MAGIC...

That's the only word that describes this amazing oil furnace

UNLESS you see it, you can't believe how differently the G-E Oil Furnace works, compared with anything you have ever seen before.

It has astonished owners with its completely automatic operation day and night, the way it supplies hot water the year round, and the way it saves from 20% to 50% on fuel bills.

This unusual kind of heating unit is on display at our showrooms. We enjoy explaining it. Liberal purchase terms give you 2% years to pay for it.

ST. ROMY FIRE DEPT. AUXILIARY MEETING

St. Romy, Feb. 20.—The Ladies Auxiliary of the St. Romy Fire Department held a meeting and election of officers Monday evening, February 19. Those elected for office are as follows: Mrs. F. Fletcher, Sr., president; Mrs. S. Barnett, vice president; Mrs. L. McMahon, recording secretary; Mrs. J. Frost, financial secretary and treasurer, and Miss E. Ryan, entertainment committee. A pot luck supper was served after the meeting was adjourned, which was enjoyed by all the members present. The next meeting will be held March 3.

Governor Lehman Assails Tactics of Utilities Companies

Attack Made on Tactics of Utilities Officials Gathered in Albany For The Public Hearing on The Governor's Bill, Which Calls For Municipal Ownership.

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 20 (AP).—Governor Lehman today assailed "the great public utilities companies" for the tactics they are using in opposition to his program for municipal ownership and clear restrictions on public utilities in New York state.

His attack, inspired largely by the flood of letters he has received, was made at a series of utilities officials gathered in Albany for the public hearing on the governor's bill this afternoon.

"There is certainly a very concerted and coordinated propaganda drive on an unprecedented scale against my public utilities bill," Governor Lehman said.

"It is interesting to note that this propaganda is being sponsored very frankly and very openly by the great public utilities companies."

"I do not believe there has been anything like this seen in Albany in many years. If ever. It is, of course, for the sole purpose of defeating the public utilities program which I have been sponsoring and which is now before the Legislature."

Governor Lehman said he had received thousands of letters in favor of the bill during the last few years, but that the letters against his program just started during the past week.

"The great utilities companies will be at the hearing represented by officers, counsel, financial and commercial connections and by well organized propaganda organizations," the Governor continued.

"The little man—the consumer—cannot be here, cannot leave his work and cannot pay the cost of coming to Albany in person."

"As a result most of the shouting and tumult will be against the bill, but I know that there is a deep and overwhelming sentiment in their favor and in support of my program all through the state which will not only make itself heard but felt."

The members of legislature have received hundreds of letters, mainly from people who say they are stockholders in public utilities, during the past few days opposing the Governor's proposal for municipal ownership of electric light plants.

Senator Jeremiah F. Twomey, chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, reported that he received more than 3,000 letters and telegrams in one day protesting against passage of the bill.

He said this flood of mail was caused "by some error of the public utilities corporations in a letter urging their stockholders to write to their representatives in the legislature, including my name as

Chairman of the Senate Committee on the Affairs of Cities

This committee first had the governor's bill under consideration, but later it was transferred to the public service commission.

In addition to the utilities companies, strong opposition also is coming from investment companies interested in utilities stocks.

The State Conference of Mayors and the Master's tax revision commission have endorsed the proposal for municipal ownership, which is the center of the controversy.

Whole World Mourns Death Of Hero King

who faithfully to the end served his oath to maintain the national independence and territorial integrity of his country."

It was a solemn occasion. Men who had known the dead ruler intimately plainly showed their emotion. The speaker of the house and president of the senate both responded to the prime minister's speech in sincere acknowledgment.

An estimated 100,000 persons pressed along the streets behind veterans' organizations—bowed heads in final tribute as the black-draped caisson carried the body to the palace. Before the coffin, in solemn majesty, rode a cavalry detachment with torches flaming. The veiling of street lamps added to the somber scene.

Princes Lead Mourners Behind the gun carriage slowly walked the crown prince. He was accompanied by his younger brother, the Count of Flanders. Then came the dignitaries of the court and the women of the royal entourage. A squadron of police brought up the rear.

Police—blue-clad with white helmets—also were along the route. Brown-helmeted soldiers in khaki reinforced their human wall. Most of the war veterans were in civilian attire.

Today, while the public turned toward the bier in the palace, the list of royalty and representatives of foreign governments grew steadily.

The Prince of Wales is expected to fly to Brussels Wednesday to represent King George V of Britain. King Boris and Prince Cyril of Bulgaria and King Carol of Rumania will attend the funeral. There will be many others.

Although the queen received a few of the visitors, she and other members of the royal family remained for the most part closely secluded at Laeken Castle.

Church of Redeemer

Due to the illness of the Rev. O. E. Brandorff, the weekly Lenten services of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of the Redeemer will be held with the congregation of the Trinity Lutheran Church in their church on Thursday evening, February 22, at 8 o'clock. The chowder sale of the downtown circle of the Ladies' Aid Society, which was to be held on Friday, February 23, will be postponed indefinitely.

"Fingerman" Sought In Factor Kidnap Case

Costner, Talking Long and Speculatively, Gives Dramatic "Inside" Story of $75,000 Abduction—Identifies Principal in Crime.

Chicago, Feb. 20 (AP)—The alleged "Fingerman" in the $75,000 John Factor kidnaping case sought today as a result of dramatic "inside" story of the abduction, which a Tennessee official was telling a big city gangster.

Joseph Silvers, part owner of the Delta roadhouse in Morton Grove, Ill., near which Factor was snatched last July 1, was the man hunted on an accusation of being Costner, young Tennessee gangster, that it was Silvers who helped members of the Roger Touhy gang locate Factor the morning he was kidnaped.

Prosecutors said Silvers might be charged with being an accessory to the abduction. He is somewhere in Florida, state attorneys a power said they were informed.

Costner, recently arrested in Baltimore with Basil Hugh Banhart, told his story as a witness yesterday for the state at the second trial of Roger Touhy, Albert Kator and Gus Schaefer, thereby violating the traditional gangster law, by talking in a court of justice.

But Costner talked for hours and when he had finished he had not only identified Touhy, Kator and Schaefer as members of the gang that kidnaped Factor, but frankly confessed that he had been with them, accepting later from Banhart the comparatively nominal sum of $2,300 as his share in the snatch. He named Charles (Ice Wagon) Connors and Andy McFadden as other members of the gang.

SUMMARY

Shokan, Feb. 13.—Services were held in the Olive-Hurley Baptist Church Sunday morning and afternoon. Readers of other places who attended the meeting included Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brooks of Potosi, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Penny of Boiceville and Freeman, Henry of Bushkill.

Miss Betty Gruber of Kingston was the week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Elmendorf of the village center.

Jerry Phillips of the Trench Mountain section had the misfortune Saturday to drop a heavy stone on his foot while working on the local county road job. It was feared that one of Mr. Phillips's toes was broken. Henry Wells of Ashokan is laid up as a result of a similar accident on the road project. The CWA works at the present time is a grading job east of the Phillips' home in which stones and rocks are used for filling.

Boy Scouts of the Shokan troop who attended the rally held at the armory in Kingston recently were as follows: Burton Cudney, Irvine weeks, William Tueling, Alfred Rose, John Aditt, Morris Rose, Seymour Winne. Others attending the rally from the twin villages were: Earl Kirm, Mr. and Mrs. William Green, Mr. and Mrs. Earl North, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Adalt and son, Robert, Daniel Bershader, Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Wells and son, Herbert, Claude Rose and the Rev. August Pfau, who is scout master of Troop 24.

Mrs. Hasbrouck Christiana and daughter of the Krumville section are spending some time in New York city.

Miss Ruth Phillips is again at her home on the Ashokan mountain road after a sojourn at the M. E. personage. Mrs. C. C. Winchell, wife of the pastor of the church, has about recovered her health and now is able to do the housework at the manse.

February 13, 1913, the Shokan Red Cross met at the home of Mrs. John D. Ennist, secretary of the organization. Mrs. Charles MacDonough presided at the meeting which was largely attended, and those who took part in the entertainment at the social session were as follows: Harry Bentley, Norman Weeks, Mrs. C. MacDonough, Mrs. Agnes H. Dumont, Phyllis Brown and Christine Bechtold. Sixteen names

Edward Leyder, superintendent of the Krebber farm, cut and stored 25 cases of ice for Mrs. Krebber last week. Upon getting this number of cases Mr. Leyder found that he could not saw any more, both on account of the thickness of the ice and the shallow water in the pond. The ice froze 14 inches in one week and at the present time it is close to the bottom of the pond. The Butterfield is very low as are most of the other streams flowing into the reservoir.

Miss Hollkamp of Central Falls is spending a two-weeks' vacation at the Longyear House in the west end of the village.

Wesley and Doris Winchell are visiting at the home of their brother, the Rev. Clarence C. Winchell, in Ashokan.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bogart of the lower village are glad that the Bogarts are able to take a motor trip to Florida. The local tourists expect to be away from home two weeks. Mr. Bogart is employed as a watershed inspector for New York city.

Mrs. Burton B. Bloom and daughter, Mrs. W. R. Harrison, of Wallkill, are spending a part of the winter with Miss Hazel Bloom in New York city. The Blooms are former residents of the old village of Shokan.

February 18, 1895, the Democrats of the town of Olive in caucus named James McMillan of Brodhead as their candidate for supervisor. Other nominations included Hae-brouck ("Brooky") Berier of the Samsonville road, for road commissioner and Sanford Bell of Bushkill for tax collector.

Howard W. Jones of 137 Elmendorf street, Kingston, who joined the navy on January 15, is stationed at Norfolk, Va. The young man is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Jones, formerly of Ashokan. He is a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. George Whittle of the Kenosia Lake neighborhood.

Judge Schirlick To Talk.

Judge Harry E. Schirlick will address the members of the Seventh Ward Democratic Club at their regular meeting Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at their club rooms, 177 Hunter street. A large attendance is expected.

Was Well-Known Broker.

Montreal, Feb. 20 (A).—Rene T. Leclerc, well-known broker and one of the most prominent financial men in French-speaking circles, died early today. He was 53.

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 20 (AP)—New York states $259,644,000 budget unanimously approved by the Senate last night, is in the hands of Governor Lehman today.

The main bill provides funds for operating the state's vast governmental machinery during the 1934-35 fiscal year. With it the Senate passed four companion bills authorizing bond issues for the year's building program.

All five bills had previously passed the Assembly without opposition. This is believed to be the earliest date for the passage of the budget in recent years.

One bill, appropriating funds for the operation of the legislative and judicial departments, was signed by the governor last night.

Although the Republican minority went along on the budget bills, Senator George R. Fearon, G. O. P. leader, pointed out the budget this year is more than $36,000,000 larger than last year.

"In his commendable desire to balance the budget and to hold state taxes at the lowest possible level, Governor Lehman has overlooked the interests of two of our largest classes of taxpayers," Senator Fearon said. "I refer to those who pay local taxes on real estate and to the motorists of the state who are turning millions into the state treasury in the form of gasoline tax and the motor vehicle tax."

He was the last of the Pance medicine men, and he lived in because the sole keeper of ceremonial mysteries that ranged from the mixing of paints to the ritual of the forbidden sun dance, and included the key to the rites of the seven tribal "bands of life and prosperity."

A CLEAR COMPLEXION

Ruddy cheeks—sparkling eyes—most women can have. Dr. F. M. Edwards for 20 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave his patients a substitute for calomel made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients, naming them Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets. Know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, causing normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, yellow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-gain feeling, all one of sorts, inactive bowels, take one of Dr. Edwards olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women and men take Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets—now and then to keep fit. 15c, 50c and 60c.—Advt.

PROCLAMATION
 The People of the State of New York, by the grace of God free and independent:
 To the Sheriff of the County of Ulster,
 Greeting:—We command you that you summon to be and appear at a term of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, to be held by a Justice of the Supreme Court at the City of Albany, on the 15th and for the County of Ulster, on the 1st Monday of March, 1934, the several persons who shall have been drawn to serve Grand Jurors in the said proceedings, and we further command you to bring before the said court all prisoners then being in the jail of the said County of Ulster, together with all the process and proceedings any way concerning them in your hands. And we further command you to make proclamation in the manner provided by law, notifying all persons bound to appear at the said court, or recognizance or otherwise, to appear thereat, and requiring all Justices of the Peace, Coroners and other officers who have taken any recognizance for the appearance of any person at the said court, or who have taken any recognizance or the examination of any grand juror, to witness, return and

PHIC MINSTREL
ON FEBRUARY 22

The Delphic Fraternity at Newitz Normal School will present its 2nd Annual Frolics 8:15 p. m. Tuesday, February 22, in the Normal Auditorium at New Paltz.

Last year the Delphics' efforts were well received by everyone attending the affair—students, faculty, nonpeople and outside friends. This year the colored fun-making will be done by six of the fraternity's members—"Sailor" Williams, Hank Brock, Charlie Ford, Hank Fagan, a Meagher and "Mouse" Follette. To supplement these efforts and to carry across another knockout of a show, there will be solos and specialties. A two-part minstrel with an old-fashioned circle to rock every one's sides, and an olio to cap the climax. "Pete" Joy is general chairman and interlocutor; Art Chipp, business manager; Bill Brown, stage manager; "Sailor" Williams, advertising manager; Stan Kellerhouse, musical director; while Bob Walker leads a six-piece orchestra will furnish the music. There will be an attractive mingling of current and older songs, hits sung by eight of the members.

Tickets may be procured from any of the Delphic members, or at the door, for a very nominal sum.

Pile Sufferers

(Can You Answer These Questions?)

Do you know why external remedies do not give quick and permanent relief?

Why cutting does not remove the cause?

Do you know the cause of Piles is internal?

What there is coagulation of blood in the rectum bowl—the veins lumpy, the parts not dead?

Do you know that there is a harmless internal remedy for itching, bleeding or protruding piles discovered by Dr. Leonard and known as HEM-RONID that is wanted?

HEM-RONID banishes piles by removing the cause. It stimulates the circulation in the lower bowel—drives out the thick impure blood, heals and restores the affected part.

Dr. Leonard's HEM-RONID has an all-time unapproachable record of success. So many have used it, and external remedies or any other as operations when Medicine of Science invite every Pile sufferer to try HEM-RONID with guarantee of money back if it does not end their Piles. Do not miss this marvelous cure.—Ad.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS—In pursuance of order of Hon. GEORGE F. KAUF, U. S. Magistrate of District Court, Southern District of New York, in and to the effect, according to certificate of said Hon. Financial and Commercial

New York, Feb. 20 (AP)—The stock market was literally "snow-bounded" today and prices tended to freeze in a narrow groove as traders struggled in through one of the worst storms of the year.

With most suburban trains delayed by an unusually heavy overnight snowfall and a subsequent cold wave, the exchange governors postponed the opening of the market from 10 a. m. to 11.

There was only a scattering of specialists on the floor when trading did start. There was a moderate rally in the railroads and rails. Grains, silver, rubber and cotton pointed lower. Sterling reacted rather sharply in terms of the dollar, but there was little change in the gold currencies. Bonds were listless.

Shares of United and Douglas Aircrafts were up fractionally to more than a point and similar gains were shown by Santa Fe, Delaware and Hudson, N. Y. Central and Pennsylvania, U. S. Industrial and American Commercial Aircrafts picked up a point each. U. S. Steel, Republic Steel, Du Pont and some others were Bloomington, Feb. 20.—The Ladies' Missionary Society will hold their annual sewing bee at the church on Thursday of this week. All the ladies of the congregation are cordially invited to come at ten o'clock. Please bring a covered dish for the noonday meal. All the ladies who have attended this bee unite in proclaiming it one of the most enjoyable days of the year. If you have never been to one of these sewing meetings, come to this one.

Young people's meeting at 7 o'clock. Leader, Miss Helen Nelson. Seventeen present last Wednesday night.

Prayer meeting at 8 o'clock.

Leroy Ransom of Stone Ridge visited this church on Sunday morning.

Mrs. Clarence Brophy and mother, Mrs. William Castor; Harold Castor, Richard Priepke, Miss Mary Clarke and Miss Doris Snow of Kingston; Mrs. J. H. Castor and daughter, Miss Genevieve Castor, and Joe Horton of Poughkeepsie called on friends Sunday evening in this place.

Church services at 9:45 and Sunday school directly after and evening services at 8 o'clock. An invitation is extended to all to come. The Rev. C. V. W. Bedford will be in charge. Joe Nodene of New York City called on Mr. and Mrs. Leo Yunnette and also on other friends on Sunday afternoon.

Joseph Yunker and Aaron Relyea and Mrs. Grace Radcliff called on Mr. and Mrs. Frank Relyea on Sunday afternoon at West Camp and also to see Mrs. Hattie Relyea, who is seriously ill.

Mrs. Lillian Ennist and son, Connie, returned to their home in New York City Wednesday evening after spending a few days with relatives here.

Mrs. T. Vabaltis of Long Island City visited her summer home here on Sunday.

Edward Diedolt visited Stony Point on Thursday afternoon and on returning to his home in Ossau, accompanied him and came home with his father and spent the rest of the week with his parents until on Sunday afternoon when he had to return to his position again.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Austin and children of Whitfield called on Mrs. Chester Newell one afternoon last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Craig of Port Ewen spent last week-end with Mr. and Mrs. L. Terhune.

Miss Jane DuBois went on Wednesday to Brooklyn for two days.

Mrs. Ennis Coutant and son, Seymour, of Kingston, and aunt, Mrs. Dell Nieberg, all spent Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Coutant's sister, Mrs. Neal Hotelling, and family.

Mrs. Deborah Barnhart, formerly of High Falls, but who has lived here for a few months in the rooms of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Castor, moved back to High Falls on Friday to live with her sister, Miss Jessie Snyder.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Newell and brother, Calvin Wood, of Whitfield, spent last Sunday in New York City. They went down to see their daughter, Miss Alice Newell, who is at Bellevue Hospital, finishing up her course of nursing.

Slightly higher. U. S. Smelting railroad more than a point. American Telephone, General Motors, Chrysler and Montgomery Ward were virtually unchanged. The utilities were faster.

Some interest was attracted to the rails because of the apparent success which the New York Central is having in its negotiations to refund $32,000,000 of bonds which mature on May 1. Amount of $20,000,000 and in this connection has already been approved by the Reconstruction Finance Corp. and bankers are reported to have indicated their intention of underwriting the remainder. An announcement as to the refunding terms is expected tomorrow. Freight car loadings of a number of the carriers were also said to be picking up substantially.

Followers of the aviation issues heard rumors that the controversy over airmail contracts might be ironed out soon and that the leading lines would be requested to present new bids.

While hopes of the silver advocates were not too buoyant, expectations were voiced in some quarters that an announcement of some sort on additional steps to "rehabilitate" the metal might be forthcoming soon from Washington.

Brokers' opinion as to the near-future action of equities was mixed. In some commission houses it was thought that the market picture may continue to be blurred until final action is taken on the bill for federal control of security trading.

Snow Delays Exchanges

New York, Feb. 20 (AP)—The New York Stock Exchange announced that the opening of trading would be postponed until 11 a. m. today because of the heavy snow storms throughout the New York area. The New York curb market and cotton exchanges posted similar notices of an hour's delay in the opening of trading, as did the securities section of the New York Produce Exchange. The New York Community Exchange announced that its opening would be postponed until 10:30 a. m.

TELEPHONE COMPANY SUFFERS FROM STORM

The telephone company has been faced with considerable difficulty due to the large increase in the number of calls brought about by the storm and the difficulty of getting operators into the central office. In every case the girls have shown a full realization of the situation and a splendid spirit in taking extraordinary steps to meet it. Many girls who were not scheduled for duty came in voluntarily and others left home earlier than their usual time in order to be at the office and meet the increased traffic which they knew would come as a result of the storm.

In Kingston telephone traffic ran about 50 per cent above normal during the morning hours. It was impossible to arrange for taxis to bring the girls into the office. Telephone company trucks were sent to call for the girls and bring them in. Seven extra operators were on duty by 10 o'clock and it is believed that the situation is now under control.

ROUNDOUT VALLEY SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION TO MEET

Bloomington, Feb. 20.—The convention of the Roundout Valley Sunday School Association will be held in the Hurley Reformed Church on Friday evening, February 23, at 7:45 o'clock.

The Rev. R. J. Harrison of the Stone Ridge M. E. Church will be the principal speaker of the evening. The Junior sermon will be given by the Rev. Ben Scholten of the Accord Reformed Church.

Delegates should bring the following: Total enrollment of the school; average attendance in Sunday School sessions from October 22, 1932, through to February 18; enrollment of scholars 12 years of age and over. A large representation from all schools will help to make this meeting a success.

Elverhoj Sale Contradicted

Milton, Feb. 20.—The announcement of the sale of the Elverhoj Colony on the Hudson, south of Milton, to Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Heckman of Long Island, published in a Poughkeepsie paper last Sunday, February 11, by a real estate firm was untrue, according to A. H. Andersen, owner of the colony. He states that the Heckmans have been seriously considering taking over the property. No definite decision has been reached, however, and for the present the status of ownership is unchanged.

DAD CLAIMS ONLY ONE TWIN IS HIS

Court Agrees, Gives Other to Wife.

Yonkers, S. D.—Ewald Paddie, farmer suing his wife for a divorce, proved to the satisfaction of Circuit Judge R. B. Tripp that he is the father of one twin, born to his wife, but not of the other. He was granted his freedom from the married state and custody of the twin he claimed as his, while the other was given to Mrs. Paddie.

"One little fellow looks like me," Paddie testified. "The other one don't look like me and don't look like my wife. Besides, my wife told me I was the daddy of one and not of the other. I want the one that favors me. The other one belongs to one of the neighbors."

In the absence of Mrs. Paddie, who did not contest the action, Judge Tripp accepted the husband's story that she had confessed being unfaithful and also his contention that he was entitled to possession of his own offspring.

Five children in all were born to Mrs. Paddie in the ten years since her marriage. In addition to the single twin, Paddie claimed one more child he declared was his. The other three youngsters, whom he desired, went to the wife.

Local physicians said that the twins, both boys, were of the fraternal as distinguished from the identical type. Therefore, in their opinion, it was entirely possible for the pair to have different fathers.

Also, it was recalled that in February, 1932, Prof. Nordstrom of the University of Lund, Sweden, noted biologist, testified in a court case that from a scientific point of view two fathers could split the paternity of the court apparently supported Doctor Nordstrom's statement and the contention was upheld. As in the Paddie case, the presumptive father was declared the parent of only one twin.

The French scientists, Menetrier and Mme. Bernard Fontaine, in 1924 wrote a thesis holding that twins need not have the same fathers. All the genetic experts are agreed that identical twins, resulting from the splitting of a single cell, can have but one father. Such twins resemble each other much more closely than do twins of the fraternal type.

Dog Proves Good Lawyer for Master

Philadelphia.—Sam Forten of Yeadon has a police dog called Bill that's a nurse, guard and lawyer.

When Sam fell on the pavement and incurred a concussion, Bill went for a policeman and lugged him to the scene. He insisted on staying at Sam's bedside in hospital.

When Sam was arraigned on a charge of intoxication, Bill stood on his hind legs and pawed at the magistrate.

When Magistrate Hamberg said: "Six months," and police seized Sam, Bill went into action with every howl at his command.

Local Death Record

Peter Elmer Krum died at West Hurley, Sunday. Surviving is his wife, Cornelia Hogan Krum. Funeral at West Hurley M. E. Church, Wednesday, February 21, at 2 p. m. Interment at Woodstock cemetery.

The funeral of Ida M. Smith of 22 Madison avenue was held Monday afternoon from the W. N. Corner Funeral Home, Fair street, at 2 o'clock. Services were conducted by the Rev. A. S. Cole of the Albany Avenue Baptist Church. Interment was in Woodstock cemetery.

Laid to her final rest in Roxbury cemetery Monday afternoon Mrs. Harry H. Van Kleeck, who died Saturday, was rendered a service fully expressive of the deep respect and esteem in which she was held by all who knew her. The Rev. Van Wert, pastor of the Gould Memorial Church of Roxbury, conducted the service at the grave, while the Rev. Wilbur H. Stowe, pastor of the Reformed Church of the Comforter, officiated at her home, 495 Foxhall avenue, this city, at 10 o'clock. Members of the family acted as bearers.

At an early hour this morning Mrs. Clara M. Graft Slover, wife of Percy Slover, died of pneumonia from which she has been suffering for a week. Her kindly spirit and her friendliness endeared her to many. She will be deeply missed by her husband, her twin sons, Robert and William, and her mother, Mrs. August Graft, all of this city; and her two sisters, Mrs. Fred Balzer of West Englewood, N. J., and Mrs. Raymond Volk of New York City, who survive her. Mrs. Slover was a member of Trinity Lutheran Church. Funeral service will be held at her residence on the Plank Road on Thursday at 2 o'clock with interment in Montrose cemetery.

Mrs. Mary Etta Prout, formerly of Kingston, died at New Milford, Pa., Sunday. Her remains will be brought to Kingston Wednesday and services held that afternoon at 2 o'clock at the chapel of A. Carr & Son, 1 Pearl street. Mrs. Prout left Kingston 27 years ago to live in Bloomington. She removed from there in 1922 to Lakeland Farm, New Milford, Pa. Besides living in Kingston she also resided in Port Ewen and Rifton, having been born in the latter community in November, 1849. Mrs. Prout was a member of the Wurts Street Baptist Church, the Ladies' Auxiliary of the E. M. C. A. and Roundout Chapter, O. E. S. Surviving is one son, E. W. Prout, formerly of Kingston now of New Milford, Pa.

Mrs. Mary Schoen died suddenly Sunday, February 18, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. Fuehrer, 1091 Eighty-first avenue, Richmond Hill, N. Y. She had been on a visit at her daughter's home for the past two months. Mrs. Schoen had been a resident of Saugerties for the past six and one-half years, residing with her son, Arnold F. Schoen, at 23 Laquette street. Had she lived until March 1, she would have been 85 years old. Mrs. Schoen was born in St. Louis, Mo. She is survived by one daughter, Caroline Fuehrer, of Brooklyn; one son, Arnold F. Schoen, of Saugerties; one sister, Mrs. E. G. Guebler; and one brother, John Abel, of St. Louis, and four grandchildren. Burial will be in Evergreen Cemetery, Brooklyn, Wednesday afternoon.

The funeral of Jacob M. Hutton was held this morning from his late home, 147 Hasbrouck avenue, at 9 o'clock and 9:30 o'clock at St. Peter's Church, where a Mass of Requiem was offered for the repose of his soul by the Rev. Henry E. Herdegen. The church was crowded with his many relatives and friends, who came to pay their last respects to his memory. Many beautiful floral tributes and numerous Mass cards were sent to the home by sorrowing relatives and devoted friends. The bearers were George Purdy, Albert Hutton, Thomas Tretheway, Thomas Burke, William Greenwald and Henry Melbert. The interment was made in the family plot in St. Peter's cemetery, where the final solution was given by the Rev. Father Herdegen as the body was lowered to its final resting place.

Mrs. Sarah L. Gannon, widow of Thomas J. Gannon, died Monday at the family home, 637 Carlton avenue, Brooklyn. Mrs. Gannon was born February 5, 1850, the daughter of Elijah J. and Elizabeth Green Matthews Hinman at Gravesend, Brooklyn. She lived her entire life in Brooklyn. Her father belonged to the Hinmans of Virginia, early English settlers of that state. Her mother was a descendant from Thomas Matthews, who fought with Washington in the battle of Monmouth, N. J., and a niece of General Nathaniel Green of Revolutionary fame. She is survived by five children. Miss Elizabeth Hinman Gannon at home, Thomas Hinman Gannon of Westbury, Long Island, Dr. Charles Lee Gannon of this city, Edward J. Gannon of Rockville Center, Long Island and Lester S. Gannon of Brooklyn. The funeral will be held from the late home on Thursday morning at 9:30 o'clock and at St. Joseph's Church, Pacific street and Vanderbilt avenue, Brooklyn, at 10 o'clock. Burial will be in the family plot in Holy Cross Cemetery, Brooklyn.

ADVANCE RESTAURANT SOLD TO GEORGE KURNEN

Announcement was made today of a change in the management of the Advance Restaurant at 286 Wall street. George Kurnen, who has been with the restaurant for some six months past, has purchased the business from Eugene Marshall and taken over the management. He has made arrangements with Chris Mitchell, former chef at the restaurant when it was conducted by William Von Berg, to return and take his old position. Miss Ernestine Fahr will remain as cashier.

Mr. Marshall, who took over the business from Von Berg a year ago in January, has taken a position with the King Stone Cigar Manufacturing Co. of Kingston, and will act as distributor for their cigar in this territory.

S. S. Northern Sword Battered by Blizzard On Rocks Off Winthrop

Coast Guard Patrol Boat Dix Fought Through Nor'easter Blast to Save Crew of 36 Men—Tugboat Also Pioneered to Rescue.

Boston, Feb. 20 (AP)—The Coast Guard patrol boat Dix and a commercial tug fought their way through a rip roaring nor'easter blizzard today to save the crew of the steamship Northern Sword, pounding to pieces on the rocks of Winthrop Harbor, just off Boston Harbor.

The Northern Sword sent out her first SOS call about 6 a. m. It was picked up by the Airways radio station at the East Boston Airport and relayed by telephone to Coast Guard headquarters at Boston.

The message said: Helpless and drifting ashore off Winthrop Head. A tremendous sea was running and visibility was extremely poor. A nor'easter blizzard coasted down the Massachusetts coast and across Cape Cod and apparently drew the Northern Sword onto the rocks of Winthrop Head.

For within a half hour, about 6:30, another SOS from the steamer said: "Vessel grounded and pounding heavily. Crew aboard. Send help. The coast guard patrol boat Dix was ordered out of Boston to the steamer's aid and the Boston Tug Boat Company sent tug Venus. Winthrop Head is a rocky promontory just outside the shelter of Boston harbor. The vicinity is annually pounded by winter storms. Boaring surf piles over the oceanic drive that runs from Revere to Winthrop Head. It is the usual winter occurrence for the Winthrop sea wall to go down beneath the battering seas, and shoreward homes, for Winthrop is a year round community, suffer annually.

The Northern Sword lay in three feet of water and was taking a terrific beating. She had 30 men aboard. She is a collier of 2,500 tons and was bound from Boston to Norfolk, Va. In ballast. Coast guards said she anchored last night in Presbiter Roads at the entrance to Boston harbor and during the early morning dragged her anchors.

A wind with a velocity estimated by coast guards at 60 miles an hour blew her on the rocks of Winthrop Head.

She is owned by the Sword Steamship Company of New York.

SOUTH ROUNDOUT.

South Roundout, Feb. 20.—Miss Mary Batch of New York City has been a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Beshock for the last week.

Rita Collier of Kingston, granddaughter of Wendell Scherer of Connelly Heights, is confined to her home with a broken collar bone.

Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer Ryan of Fallsdale Park, N. J., motored from their home and spent the week-end at the home of Mrs. Ryan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Cole, of Second street.

Mrs. William Kyer and daughter, Olive, of Kingston, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Becker of Second street.

New York, Feb. 20 (AP)—The condition of John J. McGraw, retired manager of the New York Giants National League baseball club, was reported as "somewhat improved" today.

YOUTH IS HELD CHARGE WITH SHOOTING FATHER

Stroudsburg, Pa., Feb. 20 (AP)—Youth is held on a murder charge in the slaying of his father, the claim of what police say was a quarrel over the use of an extra electric light bulb.

Charles Kelper, 65 year old resident of Fern Ridge, died yesterday in a hospital of a bullet wound in the chest. His son, Marshall, a year old high school student, was accused of shooting him.

Police said the quarrel started by lighting two bulbs in a floor lamp. They stated Kelper accused his wife of extravagance and attacked her. Intervening on behalf of his mother, the son fired a pistol at his father, investigators stated. Kelper walked half a mile to the home of a friend who had him taken to a hospital.

PHOENICIA.

Phoenicia, Feb. 20.—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tremper are spending a few days with relatives in Margaretville.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris Dibbel were recent Tannersville callers.

Mrs. Mary Nolan spent the week-end with relatives in Arkville.

Mrs. William McGrath spent Friday in Kingston.

While sleighriding in back of his home, Robert Van Kleeck had the misfortune to run into a barb wire fence. His face near his eye was so badly lacerated that he was taken to the hospital. Several stitches were required to close the wound. His many friends hope he will soon be with them again.

Mrs. William Malloy and Mrs. Frank Simmons were Kingston callers on Saturday.

Eugene Gormley and son, William, are spending some time with relatives in Pennsylvania.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Hillson of Stanford were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. David Hillson.

Ray Baldwin of Oneonta spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Newman.

Mrs. Joseph Conway is spending some time with relatives in Connecticut.

Otis Ellsworth had the misfortune while skiing to break his leg. Many friends hope he will recover shortly.

The many friends of Mrs. McCoy are sorry to hear of her illness.

Mrs. James Simpson was a Kingston caller Monday.

Mrs. Frank Niece spent the week-end with relatives in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Newman and Mrs. Short were Kingston callers Friday.

The many friends of Wilbur Kiley are glad to hear he is recovering from his illness.

Mrs. Frank Taylor entertained a number of friends at bridge on Friday evening.

“What! 98c for Tooth-paste?” (That's What You'd Pay, Madam, If It Weren't for Advertising!)

Nearly a dollar for a little tube of tooth-paste. $3.25 for a pair of chiffon hose. 50 cents for a gallon of gasoline. And a flat two thousand for a “popular priced” car.

How far could the old family budget stagger under that kind of load? What's more to the point, how many nice things could you afford to buy?

There's one big reason why you don't have to pay such outlandish prices for quality things these days. It's because you—and millions like you all over the country—do your buying through the advertising you read!

And it's because you—and thousands like you here in Kingston who read the Daily Freeman—can afford to be choosy and critical when you shop for values.

For Daily Freeman ads save you money! A merchant can mark this good merchandise at a lower price when his Daily Freeman ad will bring many, many dollar-wise shoppers to his store. Having all these buyers gives him a good return on just a tiny profit per item! And you pay no big “mark-up”

But price isn't everything. You get better quality in advertised goods. They have “acceptance”—they've been tested by thousands of shoppers as careful as yourself. And found worthwhile. They must be good or the merchant wouldn't spend his hard-earned money to advertise them in this newspaper where you can compare them with other offerings every day.

It will pay you many times over to read the ads in the Daily Freeman regularly.

How Advertising LOWERS The Price of What You Buy!

Take Tooth-paste, for instance. Good tooth-paste. It may cost Mr. Manufacturer, Mr. Jobber and Mr. Druggist 30 cents a tube to make and sell it—counting salaries and packaging and transportation, rent and other “overhead” and the interest due on the note at the bank. A fair profit all along the line . . . and then this tooth-paste could be sold for 45c—if everybody knew about it!

Sure . . .

. . . but who does know about it? Just a mere handful of people who have heard of it by “word of mouth.” A few hundred maybe. Not enough to pay the manufacturer's rent and his NRA salaries. NOT ENOUGH TO LET HIM STAY IN BUSINESS.

And so . . .

. . . he can do one of two things. Raise the price to nearly a dollar (as in our picture above) while you brush your teeth with plain water. Or raise the price a bare nickel per tube and spend that nickel per tube on advertising—to tell his story to millions—do a volume business at a small profit—and bring you good tooth-paste at 50c or even less.

GLANCING AT SPORTS

By Joe Kelly

With the temperature climbing from the zero mark to the moderate and warming 12 degrees more frequently each few days skaters and skiers must turn hopefully toward other diversions of approaching winter weather. One of the most important of which is golf in this locality. Kingston this year will have two local courses which should be the basis for some healthy local competition. Twaalfskill and Willoughby.

The beautiful greens of the Twaalfskill Club, which have been a haven for Kingston golfers for many years, could tell many stories of putts that failed to go down and foursomes which battled to the last stroke, and like the traditions of the course are the traditions of some of the tournaments, especially the men's open which takes place each fall. There is for instance the tradition of Abe Abernethy and Billy Fuller.

It seems that in their class, these two for the past several seasons had been finalists, and that final match was no mean piece of athletic prowess to watch—that is until last year. Things started well, but something happened. Someone who hadn't realized what he was doing defeated Gopher Fuller, and someone else did the same for Contestant Abernethy. It looked for a while as if there would be no stirring finish and no conversation for the locker rooms.

However, Bill and Abe decided to hold their own private little "annual battle" much to the enjoyment of golfers and spectators alike. With such a tussle in the offing a cup was sought and Champion Gopher Fuller Outerhout contributed the Class A prize to the cause. At this point humor took control of Mr. Fuller and he had "booby prize" engraved on the cup, which was carefully wrapped up and hidden for the big event.

Came the great day, and the play remained fairly even except that Abe had the edge all along the line. Billy having just the temperament to keep the play even and yet losing in what seemed to be an even contest. Then for the presentation to Abe.

The cup was brought from the locker room, and was presented to Gopher Abernethy with much praise and hand shaking. Abe responded in kind and grinned in satisfaction at his rival as he carefully unwrapped the wrappings. And then—Booby Prize! In letters several inches tall stared him in the face, his smile faded, his hands faltered, and his voice cracked. He was a good sport and managed to take the joke, and now the cup repose at the Abernethy residence with this added inscription "Won from William T. Fuller."

All of which proves that golf is not only a matter of strokes and stances—there is a lot of genuine fun too.

As You Like It.

"There's nothing like a nice shower—first hot, then cold—after a fight, Chester." That's what Battling Lurie said to Chet Dave as the two stood under the water in the shower room of the American Legion Building after one of their scraps for Kingston Post in the open air arena on Broadway and West O'Reilly street when the ex-servicemen held the outdoor bouts there. "Right," said Chester as he turned and faced Lurie whom he had knocked out in the ring. "But, Battler, you have your trunks on yet, and your shoes, too. Did you forget to take 'em off?"

"No, I always take my showers this way. You know, everyone to his own fancy. And besides it keeps my fighting toes clean."

Tilden and Vines Triumph Over French Pair at Garden

By ALAN GOULD
Associated Press Sports Editor
New York, Feb. 20 (AP).—Competing separately in the amateur quest for the Davis cup in France, Big Bill Tilden and Ellsworth Vines knew nothing but frustration over a period of six years but they combined as professionals today to enjoy the belated taste of triumph over the strongest tennis pair the tri-color now can muster to the booming battle of business men.

The Americans, with a thoroughness that was convincing even though prolonged, swept all three matches last night at Madison Square Garden with Henri Cochet and Martin Piau, the French pro team and thereby clinched the first of an international series without showing the slightest concern for what may happen to the "gate" when the final two contests are played tomorrow.

The Scores
Five hours of tennis at Madison Square Garden, ending shortly before 1 a. m., wound up with Tilden a decisive victor over Piau, 4-2, 11-9; Vines the conqueror of Cochet, for the fourth time in their amateur-pro span of rivalry, by scores of 4-4, 4-2, 4-3; and the Tilden-Vines double team the winner of a marathon bout from the visitors at 6-1, 1-6, 12-10, 6-0.

Two sets out of eleven and a thorough beating in the finishing stages of each match gave the French little consolation in their opening bout with the American pair, who have just finished a transcontinental dual involving six singles tennis in as many cities. Tilden and Vines, instead of being worn down by their dash back and forth across the country, displayed for the most part a sharp edge of shot making skill that had their rivals mainly on the defensive.

Z. N. P. Ready For St. Mary's Tonight

Manager "Dolly" Tessio of the Z. N. P. basketball team today said his boys are ready for tonight's contest with St. Mary's Big Five at White Eagle Hall, Delaware avenue, starting at 9:30. He expects his Polish cagers to come through with a win and also that there will be a record crowd on hand to see this contest, and the two prelims, one between the White Eagles and Seventh Ward Democrats at 8:30 o'clock and the other between the Z. N. P. Girls and Morans at 7:30.

Abbate testified that he had been a barber, but one day while wielding a razor he became conscious of his divine mission. The cult at that time had 200 followers. Under its leader were two "priests," one "bishop," four "monks," six "nuns" and a number of girls between seven and twelve years.

Judge David found Abbate insane and committed him to an asylum. He was released a year later.

The second rape charge was made in 1929 by the father of a twelve-year-old girl whose mother was a cult member. The girl's mother saw no wrong in her relation with Abbate. He was tried, convicted, secured a new trial on appeal, and was convicted again. An another appeal was being made he was found insane and recommitted to the asylum.

Then his attorneys and a "priest" of the cult appeared before Judge William J. Fallon in Kane county and asked for Abbate's release on a writ of habeas corpus declaring he was but a harmless religious fanatic and had recovered his sanity. Nothing was said of his criminal record. The judge released him tomorrow.

Ludicrous Pomp.

That night Abbate's deliverance was observed with a pomp, ludicrous to an outsider, in the cult headquarters. Abbate garbed himself in a fashion he thought befitting the archangel Michael and announced himself to be the pervanage. On exceeding occasions he appeared in other characters of the Bible.

A detachment of followers wearing silk tunics of bright colors, silk stockings striped with cotton, excessive hairpins and various odd medals paraded before him. Girls garbed as angels and women as various biblical figures were part of the procession in the thrashing services.

Max Carey Started On Brand New Track With Brooklyn Club

By EDWARD J. NEIL

Associated Press Sports Writer

Miami, Fla., Feb. 20 (AP). Max Carey, who manages the Brooklyn ball club and intends to keep right on with his work, doesn't care how often the boys see him unofficially just so the fall deep biting out in his eyes. But the team doesn't get confused and report to somebody else at Orlando March 4.

"Oh, that," he said, as he flexed his big feet and wondered what the grouper would be biting on today. "Why that's been happening for a long time. Now it's a little slack and somebody bites me. But it's all right with me. I don't lose my job."

He really isn't much to be can say about the latest reports that he is to be supplanted at the head of the Brooklyn club by Louis Bragel, one of his coaches, except to deny it in toto, as far as his own knowledge is concerned, and point out the facts in the ludicrous situation as he knows them.

Building With Youngsters

"We've started on a brand new track with this team," he said. "The old Brooklyn system of going along with veterans, replacing one or two of them a year with others so as to hold the club together, is all over. From now on we're building with youngsters, with speed and dash, and we're building for years to come. It's the thing I've wanted to do all along. Now we're going to do it. Doesn't that look as though I'll be here some time?"

Wouldn't Trade Three

"There are only three men on the club I wouldn't trade," Van Mungo, Al Lopez and Johnny Fredericks, and I wouldn't trade them because I couldn't get anybody any better any where," he said. "The rest of the team will be made up of youngsters, and I've got a stack of them, infielders, outfielders, pitchers, fellows who can run hard, throw hard, play hard, some of them are real good."

"Say you know I caught a grouper yesterday so big we fed twelve people with it."

So the fate of the veterans Hack Wilson, Danny Taylor, Joe Shaute, Clyde Sukeforth, even Joe Stripp and Tony Cuccinello are definitely in the balance. Glenn Wright and Heinach already have gone. The youngsters are coming.

FOLLOWERS PRAY TO KEEP LEADER FROM JAIL CELL

Bizarre Rites Are Practiced by Members of Strange Cult.

Chicago.—Within the grimy walls of a dilapidated frame dwelling at 2021 Dekalb street bizarre rites are being practiced nightly by a handful of followers of a strange cult in the hope of thwarting the administration of justice in Cook county. The dwelling is the "cathedral," "monastery" and "convent" of Joseph Marie Abbate, self-styled "celestial messenger" and founder of the cult.

In an assortment of religious and military panoply his followers parade in prayer to halt his impending confinement in the penitentiary for the rape of a twelve-year-old girl. Abbate has been twice convicted of ravishing little girls and twice evaded serving time by pleas of insanity.

"Favorite" Seven Years Old.

His first release passed unnoticed but upon the second release, county law enforcers began a campaign to make the cult leader serve time in jail if he is sane.

Back in 1923 Abbate was tried before Judge Joseph B. David on the complaint of a member of his cult, the mother of a twelve-year-old girl. During the trial there was testimony that Abbate's favorite was a seven-year-old girl, whom he called the "Blessed Virgin."

Abbate testified that he had been a barber, but one day while wielding a razor he became conscious of his divine mission. The cult at that time had 200 followers. Under its leader were two "priests," one "bishop," four "monks," six "nuns" and a number of girls between seven and twelve years.

Judge David found Abbate insane and committed him to an asylum. He was released a year later.

The second rape charge was made in 1929 by the father of a twelve-year-old girl whose mother was a cult member. The girl's mother saw no wrong in her relation with Abbate. He was tried, convicted, secured a new trial on appeal, and was convicted again. An another appeal was being made he was found insane and recommitted to the asylum.

Then his attorneys and a "priest" of the cult appeared before Judge William J. Fallon in Kane county and asked for Abbate's release on a writ of habeas corpus declaring he was but a harmless religious fanatic and had recovered his sanity. Nothing was said of his criminal record. The judge released him tomorrow.

Ludicrous Pomp.

That night Abbate's deliverance was observed with a pomp, ludicrous to an outsider, in the cult headquarters. Abbate garbed himself in a fashion he thought befitting the archangel Michael and announced himself to be the pervanage. On exceeding occasions he appeared in other characters of the Bible.

A detachment of followers wearing silk tunics of bright colors, silk stockings striped with cotton, excessive hairpins and various odd medals paraded before him. Girls garbed as angels and women as various biblical figures were part of the procession in the thrashing services.

Weather, 6:00 a. m.

The Temperature.

The lowest temperature registered by the Fahrenheit thermometer last night was 15 degrees. The highest point reached by the thermometer today was 23 degrees.

Weather Forecast.

Washington, Feb. 20. Eastern New York: Fair and colder tonight. Windy with light snow, mainly in the temperature, probably followed by snow in northwest portion. The wind at 4 a. m. was northwesterly, velocity 15 miles an hour.

Northwest Gale, Snow Piles Heavy Drifts To Block State Traffic

Lower Hudson Valley Feels Sharpest Impact of the Wind—Trains Running Late—Schools, Stores Closed in Dutchess County.

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 20.

Driven by a strong northwest wind which piled drifts several feet high, a six to twelve-inch fall of light snow in near zero temperatures impeded traffic throughout eastern and southern New York today.

The storm swept through the Hudson valley and along the Pennsylvania border, the result of a disturbance on the Atlantic coast.

Traffic was at a virtual standstill in Albany and vicinity as plows battled in vain against a driving wind which filled up the roads as soon as they had cleared a path. Six inches of snow had fallen at 8 a. m. when the thermometer read six above.

The wind was of a greater velocity in the lower Hudson valley region. At Millerton, in Dutchess county, business houses were closed and school sessions suspended.

New York Central Railroad Company officials said trains arriving here from the south were running from 10 to 15 minutes late. They encountered no difficulty in western and central New York, however, where a bright sun was shining.

Automobiles were stuck throughout the Binghamton area, where a stiff northwest wind piled drifts several feet high. The minimum temperature was one below.

Malone, in the Adirondacks, also had a taste of the storm and eight below zero temperature. A foot of snow was on the ground at 8 a. m. and still falling.

Clear skies and sub-zero temperatures prevailed in central and western New York. Buffalo's minimum was 9 below zero and at Syracuse and Rochester three below. In the rural sections in western New York it was from 20 to 28 below.

Charges Oil Code Is Fostering Monopoly

Charges that the oil code was fostering monopoly and forcing the small man out of business, were made by J. Edward Jones, chief spokesman for the independent operators and refiners on February 11 when he declared that the acts of Harold D. Ickes as oil administrator, were "a violation of the announced purpose of the President and those of the National Recovery Act."

Mr. Jones stated that the monopoly has grown with the oil code instead of being curbed, and said that unless the present policy was reversed the code will fail in its purpose and the result will hinder the entire recovery program.

Mr. Jones in his recommendation for betterment made the following four proposals which he contended would do much to right the intention of the oil code:

Permit domestic production of crude petroleum the right to equal or total demand for all oils.

Divorce interstate pipe lines from organizations operating in other branches of the petroleum industry.

Enforce rigidly the anti-trust laws against price-fixing and against unfair practices in eliminating free competition.

Impose an adequate protective tariff upon the importation of all crude petroleum and petroleum products.

PLAN FOR MUSICAL HOUR AT FIRST DUTCH CHURCH

The first Sunday afternoon hour of music will be inaugurated next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the First Reformed Church.

Through the cooperation of the organists and choirs of the Fair Street Reformed and the First Reformed Churches an hour of music for Sunday afternoon has been arranged.

At this time the Cantata, "Penitence, Pardon and Peace," by Maunder, will be sung by the combined choirs, preceded by a group of violin numbers by Mrs. Florence Cuddy.

It is thought that if this should prove a desirable way of observing the Lenten season, other similar programs of organ and choral music would follow.

At Trinity M. E. Church.

On account of storm, Dr. J. A. Leach, who was announced as preacher for the service at Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church Thursday night, will postpone his visit until Friday night of this week. Dr. Leach will speak Thursday evening, continuing "The Love Story of Jesus." The theme for the evening will be "God's Love and New Garments."

MCGRAW APPEARS TO BE HOLDING HIS OWN TODAY

New York, Feb. 20 (AP)—John J. McGraw appeared today to be holding his own against an attack of uremic poisoning.

The 60-year-old baseball leader, manager of the New York Giants for 30 years, was reported resting comfortably in New Rochelle Hospital early this morning. Word from the sick room was that he was sleeping.

Two bulletins issued by Dr. Louis B. Chapman and his consultants, Drs. E. L. Keyes and E. L. Kellogg, indicated the gravity of McGraw's condition but reports that the patient had lapsed into a complete coma were called unfounded.

Matthew Cahill in "World's All Right"

Matthew Cahill, city corporation counsel, will be seen in the community show, "The World's All Right," which is to be staged at Kingston High School Tuesday and Wednesday, February 27-28. Mr. Cahill will give a one minute speech, both entertaining and funny, telling "Why the World's All Right."

A special choir of thirty voices will be heard in the Vesper hour service, which is one of the features of this radio broadcast. To Relieve Catarrh, Catarrhal Deafness And Head Noises Persons suffering from external deafness, or who are growing hard of hearing and have head noises will be glad to know that this distressing affliction can usually be successfully treated at home by an internal medicine that in many instances has effected complete relief after other treatments have failed. Sufferers who could scarcely hear have had their hearing restored to such an extent that the tick of a watch was plainly audible seven or eight inches away from either ear. Therefore, if you know of someone who is troubled with head noises or catarrhal deafness, cut out this formula and hand it to them and you may have been the means of saving some poor sufferer perhaps from total deafness. The prescription can be prepared at home and is made as follows:

Secure from McBride's or your druggist 1 oz. Parmint (Double Strength). Take this home add to it 4 pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar; stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day.

Parmint is used in this way not only to reduce by tonic action the inflammation and swelling in the Eustachian Tubes, and thus to equalize the air pressure on the drum, but to correct any excess of secretions in the middle ear, and the results it gives are nearly always quick and effective.

Every person who has catarrh in any form, or distressing, rumbling, hissing sounds in their ears, should give this recipe a trial.—Adv.

Each year Turkey and Greece ship us thousands of bales of fine tobaccos—

But why send 4,000 miles for tobacco?

... because spicy, aromatic Turkish is the best seasoning there is for a cigarette.

It adds something to flavor and aroma that no other tobacco can give. Chesterfield uses Turkish tobacco—from Samsoun, Smyrna, Cavalla and Xanthi.

Then it blends and cross-blends them with various kinds of choice home-grown tobaccos in the right balance to give you a cigarette that's milder, a cigarette that tastes better.

A leaf of Turkish tobacco—smaller than the palm of your hand—800 or more to the pound. There are many thousands of these leaves in each of these bales below, ready for shipment to America.
